

HANKOW IN FLAMES; MISSION IS BURNED

ACCUSED OF SLAYING INFANT

Wealthy Grandmother of Baby Held for the Crime at Los Angeles

Mother of Child Says It Was Strangled With Pocket Handkerchief

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4.—Accusing her mother, Mrs. Hattie S. Russell, owner of extensive realty interests in this county, of strangling her hour-old grandchild to death, sixteen months ago, Mrs. Mildred Russell Neal of Newhall told the district attorney a tale today that resulted in the elder woman being held in the county jail pending an investigation.

While Deputy District Attorney W. C. Doran is conducting an investigation into the charges made by Mrs. Neal against her mother, there lies in his office a little box which contains the tiny skeleton of the baby who was born June 10, 1910. The body was exhumed from the backyard of the Russell home at Newhall, a town several miles from Los Angeles.

Mrs. Neal declares that her mother strangled the baby with a handkerchief, which she twisted about the infant's neck, then placed it in a box and buried it in the yard.

Mrs. Russell asserts that she was away from home when the baby was born and when she returned she found the baby with a piece of blanket twisted about its throat. She declared her daughter stated she had used that means to prevent the hired men from hearing the baby's cries. It was said that Mrs. Russell's husband, J. A. Russell, divorced from his wife some months ago, only recently heard of the birth of his daughter's child and then informed the district attorney about it.

Bank Cashier Reverses Usual Action in Case

Obtains Permission to Stay in Jail While Shortage Is Probed.

ROCHESTER, Ind., Nov. 4.—After state bank examiners had closed the Citizens Bank at Akron, Ind., ten miles east of this city and had announced that its funds were short about $35,000 today, Howard Harter, the bank's cashier, came here and obtained the sheriff's permission to stay in the county jail until inquiry into the institution's affairs had proceeded further.

Husband Emptied Her Purse, Says Wife

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Claiming that hubby came home, opened her purse and took all of her money and then struck her when she screamed, Mrs. Georgia Norvel Wood of 1565 Washington street filed a divorce action for cruelty against Corbet Wood, an automobile man, this morning. She sets forth that her spouse neglected to pay the rent and other bills, causing her great humiliation.

GOVERNOR CHANGES DATE FOR SPECIAL SESSION

Legislature to Meet November 27 in Order to Give Lawmakers Time to Complete Work Before Christmas

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 4.—The extraordinary session of the Legislature will commence on the 27th of this month instead of on December 6th, as originally announced. The change in date was made today when it became evident that the session might require four weeks instead of the three in December before Christmas.

Two Dead as Result of Drinking Wood Alcohol

BREMERTON, Wash., Nov. 4.—From drinking wood alcohol, P. J. Halley and A. L. Law, navy sailors, are dead; Seaman Arthur Johnson is dying and a detachment of navy guards are seeking to find other members of the complement of the cruiser Pennsylvania, who may be dead or sick in hotels of the city. The deaths occurred simultaneously this morning.

PRINCETON DEFEATS HARVARD

For the First Time in Fifteen Years Big Universities Play Football

Backers of Crimson Give 10 to 7 and 2 to 1 Odds in the Betting

FINAL SCORE
Princeton 8
Harvard 6

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 4.—A safety, over which there was some doubt and on which points were allowed, spelled Princeton's victory over Harvard today by a score of 8 to 6.

On all-around football the crimson had a trifle the better and outwitted Princeton, but a blocked kick when Harvard was about to score a goal from the field completely turned the tide of battle. White grabbed the ball and ran 35 yards for a touchdown.

In the third period a Princeton punt was about to roll over the Harvard goal line, but a Harvard back grabbed it too soon and a safety was scored against the crimson.

Harvard's score was made on a Princeton fumble and a forward pass, Wendell making the score. There was a great celebration at the end of the game.

15 YEARS BETWEEN GAMES.

Princeton and Harvard played football today for the first time in fifteen years.

In all, Harvard has met Princeton sixteen times on the gridiron, and of these times has won only three, Princeton capturing twelve, while one was a tie.

There was lots of Harvard money in sight this morning at odds of 7 to 1 and 10 to 6, and some have been reported even at odds of 2 to 1. The Princeton supporters were not slow in covering all the money in sight offered at odds as big as these.

The lineup:
Princeton. Position. Harvard.
White..... L. E..... Smith.
Hart..... L. T..... Hitchcock.
Wilson..... L. G..... Fisher.
Lumenthal..... R. G..... Fisher.
Duff..... R. T..... Gardner.
Phillips..... R. E..... O'Brien.
Dunlap..... Q. B..... Potter.
Christie..... L. B. B..... Wendell.
Dewitt..... L. H. B. Campbell.
Vaughan..... F. B..... Huntington.
Referee—W. S. Langford, Trinity.
Umpire—Dr. Carl Williams, Pennsylvania.

HARVARD FIRST ON FIELD.

Stands were not half-filled when the Harvard team dashed on to the field at 1:30. There were few cheers as the team spread out over the gridiron to warm up.

At 1:50, when the Princeton team entered the field, four yell leaders, armed with megaphones, pulled open the throttle and the well-known locomotive cheer boomed across the gridiron.

RODGERS ON LAST LEG OF TRIP

Aviator Wings His Way From Imperial Junction Toward Pasadena

Big Telescope on Mount Wilson to Keep Track of Birdman on Desert

BANNING, Cal., Nov. 4.—Engine trouble caused Aviator Rodgers to descend here at 1 o'clock this afternoon. He said he might not be able to resume his flight to Pasadena this afternoon.

Rodgers' alighting was attended with some danger. When about 200 feet from the ground it seemed that his airplane was about to tip over, but he managed to right it and landed in an open field.

Examination disclosed that the gasoline tank was leaking. This caused Rodgers some worry, as his mechanic was fifty miles away.

MECCA, Cal., Nov. 4.—Rodgers passed Mecca, 45 miles from Imperial Junction and 133 miles from Pasadena, at 11:37 o'clock.

IMPERIAL JUNCTION, Cal., Nov. 4.—Aviator Rodgers essayed a flight at 10 o'clock, but was forced to come down again two minutes later by a recalcitrant motor. At 10:45 o'clock, after putting his engine in such shape that he thought it would last until he could reach Pasadena, 184 miles away, he again took the air. He expected to reach Pasadena between 2 and 3 o'clock this afternoon.

AWAIT AVIATOR.

PASADENA, Nov. 4.—Citizens of Pasadena are prepared to give Rodgers a rousing welcome when he brings his airship to earth at Tournament Park. A bulletin service to keep the crowd informed of the aviator's whereabouts on the final stages of his flight has been arranged. Part of this is supplied by the observatory on Mt. Wilson. The big telescope has been trained on the desert to pick up the aviator.

FOWLER RENEWS FLIGHT.

BISBEE, Ariz., Nov. 4.—Aviator Robert G. Fowler succeeded in correcting his engine trouble at noon today and fifteen minutes later resumed his flight eastward, determined that he would lose no more time because of unpleasant weather. He traveled south through murky skies, bound for Hachita, N. M., where he expects to alight to renew his supply of gasoline.

Stomach, Liver and Heart on Wrong Side

Child Lives Two Years Despite Abnormal Condition of His Organs.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 4.—While his heart, liver and stomach were on the wrong side of his body, physicians are of the opinion that John Van Allan Ford, two years of age, who died here at the home of his grand-father, Captain John M. Webster, would have lived out his natural life, had not the auricles of his heart been connected by an opening, making his case a rarity in medical annals.

The lad was the son of Captain Geo. Ford of the 20th Infantry, now in the Philippines. Until a year ago his health was perfect. Falling, he struck his head on the floor, causing paralysis. He recovered, but his heart became over-developed, and he had a second stroke of paralysis from which he died.

Vose Is Preparing Fat Turkey for Taft

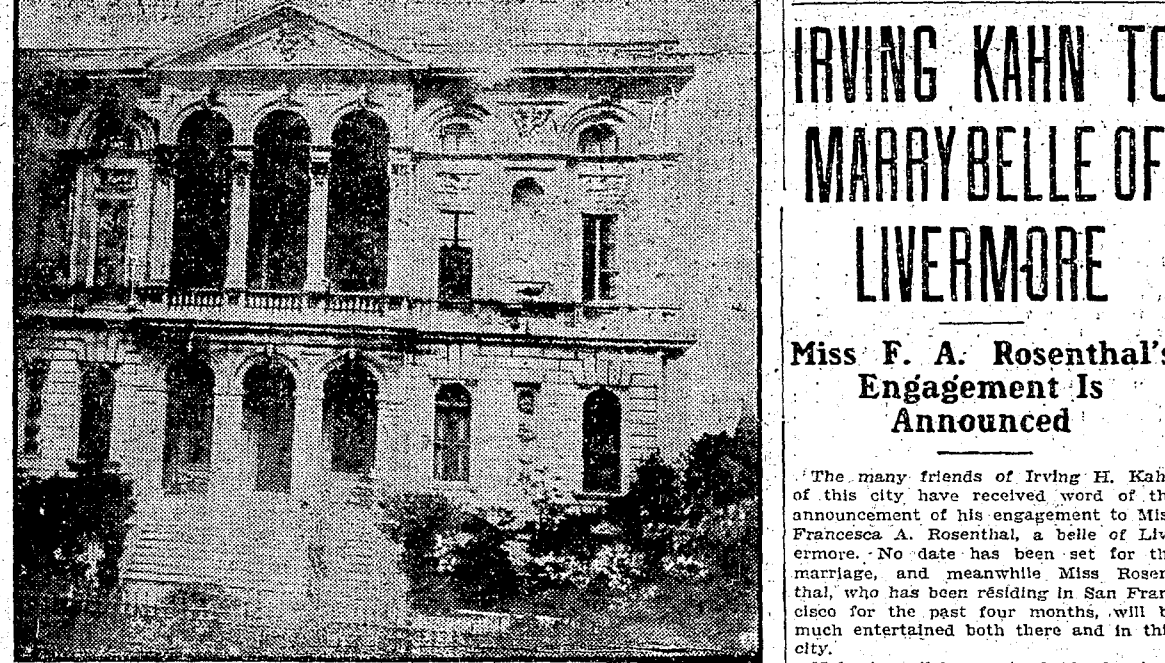

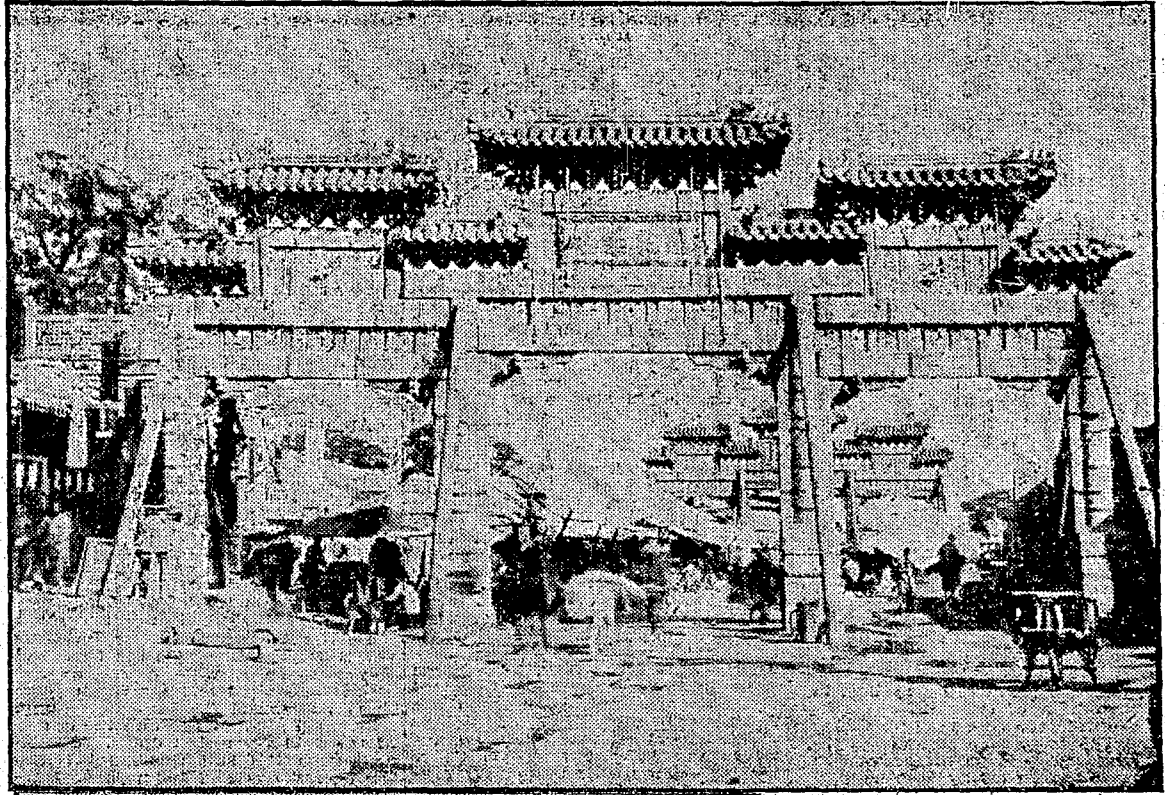

"National Bird" Is Gaining in Weight Hourly on Diet of Chestnuts.

NEWPORT, R. I., Nov. 4.—Horace Vose, the Western turkey fancier, is preparing his annual Thanksgiving gift for President Taft's table. The Taft turkey this year is a fine bronze gobbler, which is gaining weight every minute on a diet of chestnuts, which produces a fine quality of white meat.

"I shall send President Taft the finest turkey I ever gave to any President since the one I sent to President Grant," said Vose.

IRVING KAHN TO MARRY BELLE OF LIVERMORE

Miss F. A. Rosenthal's Engagement Is Announced

The many friends of Irving H. Kahn of this city, have received word of the announcement of his engagement to Miss Francesca A. Rosenthal, a belle of Livermore. No date has been set for the marriage, and meanwhile Miss Rosenthal, who has been residing in San Francisco for the past four months, will be much entertained both there and in this city.

Kahn is well known in Oakland, where he is one of the firm of Kahn Bros. After the wedding the couple will make their home in this city. A large reception will be held at the handsome Kahn residence next Saturday evening.

Schley's Nephew Weds At Two in Morning

Connecticut Man Waits but Few Hours After Divorce to Try It Again.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 4.—At 2 o'clock this morning, Assistant Town Clerk Joseph N. Buckley was routed out of bed to issue a marriage license to James M. Schley, nephew of the late Admiral Schley, of New York city, and Miss Bertha Sedgwick, of the same place. The couple then went to police headquarters, where the services of the justice of the peace were secured by telephone. It is understood that Schley's first wife secured a divorce in Reno, Nev., yesterday.

RENO, Nev., Nov. 4.—Rachel Schley obtained a decree of divorce from James M. Schley last Thursday in the district court here. They were married in Wilmington, Del., in 1903, and she charged desertion at Philadelphia in 1905. The defendant did not contest the suit.

RED CROSS STEAMER FIRED ON

Revolutionary Government in Complete Control of the Situation at Shanghai

Admiral Murdock Marches 200 American Marines Into Chinese City

HANKOW, China, via Wu Chang, Nov. 4.—Almost the whole of the native city of Hankow is afire this morning and it is feared that the Wesleyan Mission, near the Han river, in which are fifty blind boys and 150 wounded persons who, with the staff of the mission, make up a total of 300 persons, was destroyed.

Dr. Booth, the head of the mission, asked the Imperialists to grant an armistice of two hours to permit of removal of all persons from the mission, but the firing ceased for only a half hour.

A Red Cross steamer, which attempted to rescue the inmates of the mission, was driven back by the fire from the rebel force. One shell riddled the steamer's deck house. When the vessel was compelled to turn back, the mission was still standing, but its position was hopeless, the flames being within 200 yards of it.

The fires in the town were started by the Imperialists, who threw inflammable shells into the place. A strong wind carried the flames across the river to Han Yang, and a strip of that city on the waterfront, a mile long, was destroyed and the fire is still burning there.

REBELS HOLD FIRM. A few hundred rebels, against whom the Imperialists are preparing to advance, occupy the unburned parts of Hankow.

When the steamer left, an artillery duel was taking place between the batteries of the Imperialists, which were planted back of the British concessions, and the Wu Chang and Han Yang forts. Several rebel shells landed in the foreign concessions, piercing the walls of houses.

The Imperialists occupy the district westward of the railway station almost to the Han river.

The chamber of commerce asked the foreign consuls to protest against the burning of the city, but the consuls declined to do so.

Airship Akron Makes Its Trial Flight

Sails Over Atlantic City and Lands at Pleasanton, Five Miles Away.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 4.—The airship Akron, under command of Melville Vaniman, left the harbor at the inlet at 9:50 a. m. today for a trial flight over the city.

The airship, after sailing over the city, crossed the Meadows and landed at Pleasanton, five miles from Atlantic City. After remaining on the ground a short time the airship again rose and headed for this city.

The airship maneuvered over the Meadows and came down twice. It was on the ground about four miles from the inlet and something appeared to be wrong.

FIRE PRECAUTIONS TO COST $35,000

S. P. and Steamship Companies to Install Salt Water System On Wharf.

Within the next two weeks the Southern Pacific railroad company and the American-Hawaiian Steamship company will expend nearly $35,000 for the installation of a modern salt water fire fighting system on the outer end of Long Wharf, the Oakland pier and the Alameda mole.

The system will be modeled after the plant now in operation on the municipal docks in New York city and along the lake front of Chicago.

For the past two years Charles F. G. Hayes, consulting engineer of the Pacific system of the Harborman lines, has been in the large cities of the east studying fire fighting systems, and only recently returned with a set of plans patterned after the best to be found.

Each plant, that at the end of the wharf and the larger ones at the two piers, will be a complete fire fighting apparatus in itself. The larger plants will be constructed at a cost of $10,000 each and will be able to throw a three-inch stream of salt water from the bay a distance of nearly 250 feet, at the rate of 10,000 gallons a minute.

OAKLANDERS THE GUESTS OF HONOR

Address Meeting of Foresters of America at City of Richmond.

RICHMOND, Nov. 4.—District Attorney W. H. Donahue of Alameda county was the main speaker at the meeting held last night under the auspices of the local Foresters of America to discuss the subject of Juvenile Forestry. The meeting was largely attended, and was presided over by Mayor James C. Owens.

Donahue, in his talk, spoke of the good being accomplished by the order and advocated the establishment of a club for the boys and girls of the city, which was the purpose of the meeting.

Other speakers of the evening were Mayor Owens, who outlined the purpose of the meeting in a few opening remarks, Rev. D. W. Calfee, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church; Judge James G. Quinn of Oakland; Mrs. C. W. Wright, who discussed the work of the Women's Circle, connected with the order, and Judge A. K. Kennon, presiding officer of the local court, which has recently been organized.

LA AMITA WORLD'S FINEST 12 1/2 CIGARS

BROKER MAY FACE A COURT IS CRITICAL SERIOUS CHARGE OF SMUGGLING

R. Augustus Bray's New Overcoat Arouses Suspicion of Customs Men.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—R. Augustus Bray, wealthy grain broker of Oakland, has become involved with the customs officials, and all because of an alleged changing of overcoats on board the steamer Mongolia. Collector of the Port Frederick S. Stratton is having the matter investigated, and Bray must explain to the United States Grand Jury why he went on board ship with an old overcoat and came off with a new one. In other words, Bray must face a charge of smuggling.

The chief witnesses against the grain broker may be his wife's half-sisters, Mrs. Victor H. Metcalf Jr. and Miss Margaret Butters. Mrs. Bray, Mrs. Metcalf and Miss Butters are all daughters of Mrs. Henry Butters, widow of the millionaire.

GO ABOARD SHIP.

The steamer Mongolia, with Captain Henry Morton on the bridge, came into port October 28, and among the passengers was Mrs. Victor H. Metcalf Jr., who had been touring in the Orient. Bray and his wife and Miss Margaret Butters arrived at the Mail dock to see the vessel arrive and were among the first to go on the ship and greet the returned traveler.

When Bray went aboard the customs officers at the dock noticed that he wore a rather old overcoat for an Oakland society leader, but they let him pass. When he came off the ship they noticed him more closely. He wore a new overcoat. The officers at the ship reported the mysterious change to Collector Stratton.

AGENTS INVESTIGATE

Stratton summoned Bray, and asked him to explain the transformation of the overcoat. Bray, it is said, denied that he secured a new overcoat on the Mongolia. Agents turned the matter over to Special Agents Bean and Tidwell of the Treasury Department. They investigated and found that Miss Butters and Mrs. Victor H. Metcalf Jr. would testify against their sister's husband in effect that he secured the new overcoat on board ship.

In the meantime Bray had conferred with his friend, Colonel Oscar F. Long, formerly of the transport service, who is the husband of a daughter of Mark Requa of Oakland. Bray asked the colonel to shield him by taking the overcoat for a while. But the colonel refused, it is said, declaring that he had a long and honorable service in the army, and that he would not sell it over a contraband overcoat.

Stratton sent Chief Boarding Officer Charles Stephens to see Bray again and conduct him to Stratton's office. Then there was another scene, and now Bray has to face the federal grand jury, which will investigate the alleged smuggling exploit of the grain broker.

FINDS SAFE UNLOCKED.

A burglar broke in and had no difficulty, therefore, in obtaining $163, two watches and five rings. The thief made no attempt to disturb anything else in the place.

E. S. Pillsbury of San Francisco Interrupted in Arguments by Justices.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The critical manner in which the supreme court of the United States yesterday listened to arguments that the initiative and referendum was unconstitutional brought disagreement to the friends of the system. Oral arguments on both sides were completed before the court adjourned for the day.

E. S. Pillsbury of San Francisco and R. R. Dunlap of Portland, Ore., were heard in opposition to the method in two Oregon cases. When Pillsbury remarked that there could not, with due regard for the federal constitution, be two legislative powers in a State—namely the legislature and the people, Justice Lurton interrupted him.

INTERRUPTED BY COURT.

"What is a State constitution but an organic act of legislation by the people?" inquired the justice.

"That is expressly what I understand it to be," responded Pillsbury.

"Then there is legislative power in the people."

Pillsbury suggested that the people might put into their State constitution anything not in conflict with the restrictions of the federal constitution.

"What are the restrictions which you claim are violated in this particular case?" inquired Chief Justice White.

"The provision for a legislature."

The chief justice asked him to read it.

"I cannot read it; it is implied in a dozen places," said the attorney.

"And what is the constitution as construed by this court to imply that there must be a legislature?"

FAILS TO PRODUCE CASES.

The chief justice asked for the cases in which the point had been in issue, but the attorney did not give them.

It was further argued that taxes imposed under the initiative method were not "due process of law," and violated "the equal protection of the laws" so long as some persons were taxed under initiative laws and others under legislative laws.

Attorney General Crawford of Oregon, declared that the question whether the method violated the guaranty of the United States in the federal constitution of a "republican form of government to every State" was a political question for congress to decide and not a judicial one. He inquired how the court would enforce its decision if congress and Oregon were opposed to it.

Frank S. Grant and William C. Benbow of Portland, Ore., spoke in the interest of "home rule." George Fred Williams of Boston argued that only party to the "guaranty" of the States, could ask the United States to make good its promise that every State should have a republican form of government. A corporation, he said, could not do so, because the guaranty was to the States.

NO OBJECTION MADE.

"I have heard no State objecting to the Oregon form of government," said Williams.

Chief Justice White suggested that the word "form" in the constitution lent support to Williams' interpretation of the word "guaranty."

Justice H. E. Ralston of this city contended that the supporters of the method were wrong in arguing that the word "republican" was used in the constitution as a synonym for representative. He argued it was used in contradistinction with "monarchical." Justice Holmes suggested this interpretation would be in conformity with the rules of logic.

1000 PERSONS TO ATTEND BANQUET

Chamber of Commerce Will Hold Big Meeting in Palace Hotel Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—The Chamber of Commerce will hold its first banquet in the court of the Palace Hotel early in December, and if present plans are carried out it will be the main civic event of the year.

Space will be provided for a thousand guests, and since the amalgamation of the four commercial bodies it is likely that this will be the largest banquet ever held in San Francisco, and that provision will have to be made to take care of an overflow.

Mayor-elect Rolph will be one of the speakers. Ryerson Ritchie, the organizer of chambers of commerce in Boston, Detroit, Chicago, Kansas City and Cleveland will explain how it is to be done, and how San Francisco can best catch the eye of the world.

Colonel Goethals, chairman and chief engineer of the Isthmian Canal commission, has been invited to attend as the guest of the chamber.

Nancy A. Wheeler, chairman of the Chicago Association of Commerce, is expected to be present.

BARS PENSIONERS FROM ALL SERVICE

Brigadier-General Evans Expresses Himself in Formal Ruling.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Any person receiving pensions from the government, on account of wounds received in action, or other forms of disability, cannot be enlisted in the regular service, and in the opinion of Brigadier-General Robert K. Evans, chief of the division of military affairs, expressed in formal ruling today, should not be enlisted in the national guard. There is a number of cases of this kind in the organized militia.

PAINT FALLS ON PREMIER.

MADRID, Nov. 4.—Prime Minister Canalejas, while passing on foot a shop which was being redecorated, received the contents of a pot of red paint upon his head. The painter, who had fallen, was not badly hurt, but the premier's hat and clothes were covered with paint and his eyeglasses were broken.

NO SHORTAGE OF BREAD BY STRIKE

Supply Is Plentiful; No Lack of Bakers On the Job.

There is no danger in the shortage of the bread supply, according to J. Cassou, proprietor of the French Bakeries Company at Fifth and Clay streets, whose bakers walked out this week. "The men were called out by the organizers, but we have had no trouble in filling their places. So far as the charge that sanitary conditions in the bakeries had anything to do with the walk-out, I will say that our establishment is open to inspection and I believe that the public would approve of our methods so far as the baking and handling of bread is concerned."

In addition to the walk-out in the Cassou establishment, there were a number of smaller concerns affected, but it was reported today that they were again in operation. Only the non-union bakeries were affected by the strike.

In effecting the walk-out representatives of the Labor Council feel that they achieved an important victory, as the men immediately joined the union.

POLICEMAN DUNN HAS EAGLE EYE

Spots Burglar at Work, Pulls a Gun and Lands Him in City Prison.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—The watchful eye of Special Policeman Dunn, who was standing concealed in a doorway, brought about the arrest early this morning of one of a pair of burglars who had attempted to break into the Hotel Belmont, 730 Eddy street. Dunn observed the pair as they walked along Polk street and saw how furtively they gazed about to make sure that they were not seen.

As they turned into Willow avenue, Dunn followed and summoned Special Officer Tilton, who went around to Van Ness avenue to cut off escape in that direction. Following up the street, Dunn saw one of the men climb up and attempt to force a window at the rear of the hotel, while the second burglar acted as a lookout.

Drawing his revolver, the officer advanced and ordered them to throw up their hands. One of them dodged, ran toward Polk street and made his escape in the opposite direction from where Tilton was standing guard, while the other man dropped to his feet and threw up his hands. He was arrested, taken to the Bush street station and charged with burglary under the name of Louis Warren.

A search of his pockets revealed a pair of brass knuckles, and an additional charge of carrying concealed weapons was placed against him.

Read the Truth on the Tailor's Books

Clothing manufacturers themselves order their suits from the best merchant tailors. First of all, because they know clothes so well that ready-mades aren't good enough for them, and, secondly, because they use their own suits as models from which to copy ready-made styles. This is an absolute fact, and the tailors of the town can prove it by showing you their lists of clients. But merely copying tailored clothes doesn't reproduce them. First of all, a manufacturer can't duplicate the original in time to sell it the same season that he secured it, and, besides, his tailor really planned the suit in question to fit his own personality.

Therefore, the man who buys ready-made clothes is getting out-of-date garments compared to the tailors' standard, and what is not up-to-date doesn't belong on the back of the up-to-date man. It has to do for those who haven't income enough or inclination to be particular.

Soda crackers are more nutritive than any other flour food. Uneeda Biscuit are the perfect soda crackers. Therefore, Uneeda Biscuit.

Five cents spent for a package of Uneeda Biscuit is an investment—an investment in nourishment, in health, in good eating.

Though the cost is but five cents, Uneeda Biscuit are too good, too nourishing, too crisp, to be bought merely as an economy.

Buy them because of their freshness—buy them because of their crispness—buy them because of their goodness—buy them because of their nourishment.

Always 5 cents. Always fresh and crisp in the moisture-proof package. Never sold in bulk.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

OREGON DUE TO ARRIVE MONDAY

Old Battleship Leaves South With Others of Pacific Fleet.

SAN PEDRO, Nov. 4.—The old battleship Oregon and the cruisers California, West Virginia, South Dakota and Colorado, with the little gunboat Vicksburg and Glacier and Prometheus, the only ships of the Pacific fleet left in the harbor yesterday, departed today. The Colorado and West Virginia were the first to leave, sailing at 9 o'clock this morning. The California, Oregon, Colorado, Vicksburg and Prometheus followed at 11 a. m. The South Dakota was scheduled to sail at 2 p. m. The Vicksburg, Prometheus and Glacier will get away before night and the harbor will be cleared of warships.

On the way to San Diego the cruisers will have target practice.

WILL ARRIVE MONDAY.

VALLEJO, Cal., Nov. 4.—The battleship Oregon is scheduled to arrive at the Mare Island Navy yard Monday from the review at Los Angeles to take on a supply of ammunition before returning to the Puget Sound Navy yard. Several prisoners will also be sent to the federal prison at McNeill's Island on the Oregon. Orders were received at Mare Island yesterday detailing the collier Prometheus to accompany the Pacific fleet on its Hawaiian cruise to carry fuel for the torpedo boat destroyers.

PIONEER OF STATE DIES IN HOSPITAL

George Martin Passes at Age of 75 Years; Was Known in Business Circles.

George Martin, a pioneer of this state since 1862, and well known in business circles in this city and in San Francisco, died yesterday at Pablosa hospital during a relapse following an operation.

Martin was 75 years old and a native of North Wilmington, Mass. For many years he had acted as manager for the Morton Draying Company in San Francisco, but failing health compelled him to retire from his position five years ago.

Ten years ago he removed from San Francisco to Alameda with his family, the home being at 6130 Shattuck avenue, that city, where Mrs. Martin died three years ago.

Surviving Martin are four daughters, Miss Francis Martin, a teacher in the Redding Primary school of San Francisco; Miss Felicia Martin and Miss Lillian G. Martin, all of Oakland. The other daughter is the wife of James Hamby of Alameda. There is one grandson, Herbert Newton Turrell Jr., who is now attending the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Boston.

Funeral services will be held at Cypress Lawn Cemetery chapel Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Rev. Alexander Allen of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Oakland, will officiate.

SLEEPER ROBBED OF $1100 IN GEMS

Burglar Uses Key to Enter a Hotel Room, Which He Ransacks.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—While Miss Margaret May slept in her apartment at the International Hotel last night, a sneak thief, with the aid of a pass key, entered the room and ransacked it without waking her.

Diamonds, jewelry and coin to the value of $1100 were obtained on account of the entanglement and then deserted his wife according to the testimony on which Abby Moor has secured an interlocutory decree of divorce in the Superior Court.

WIFE PUTS BLAME ON 17-YEAR-OLD AFFINITY

Carl Moor fell in love with a 17-year-old affinity, lost his position on account of the entanglement and then deserted his wife according to the testimony on which Abby Moor has secured an interlocutory decree of divorce in the Superior Court.

DR. BEASER FAILS TO IDENTIFY BODY

Declares Skeleton Found at Biggs Is Not That of Brother Scott.

FRESNO, Nov. 4.—Dr. Beaser, a dentist of this city, declares that the corpse found at Biggs yesterday is not that of his brother, Scott Beaser, the engineer who has been missing four months. A description of the body was received this morning from the coroner at Biggs. It says that practically nothing but a skeleton was found, the remains of a man six feet two inches in height, while Scott Beaser was but five feet nine inches in height.

The description also says that a number 5 shoe was found while the missing engineer wore a number 6. Dr. Beaser will not go to Biggs as he is satisfied that the remains of his brother have not been found.

Scott Beaser disappeared from his mining claim on the middle fork of the Feather river, and no trace of him has since been found.

HAYWARD SCENE OF FOWL TALE

Roosters Crow Over Chicken Thief and Fight Over Pullet.

HAYWARD, Nov. 4.—Harry Thompson, confessed wholesale chicken thief, who has been victimizing numerous hen roosts in this section, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Charles Brown yesterday afternoon and held over to the Superior Court on a charge of burglary.

The proportions of the culprit's depredations drew a small crowd of the curious to the court room and much amusement was derived from the intermittent crows and cacklings of a number of fine young white, Leghorn and Plymouth Rock roosters which were in court as evidence for the state.

The dignified of the court was several times disturbed by the lusty chattering, and when two rivals for the attentions of a handsome pullet commenced a savage fight in plain view of the entire court room, the proceedings of the bench were temporarily brought to a close.

NAVAL KITES RIDDLED BY AEROPLANE GUNS

VALLEJO, Nov. 4.—Word received at Mare Island yesterday tells of the effective work done by the gunners aboard the cruiser Maryland in demolishing target kites made to test the efficiency of the naval marksmen against aeroplane attacks. The machine guns aboard the cruiser worked so perfectly that one of the big kites was riddled with small shot before it was fairly in position.

Rumors are still heard at Mare Island that school of aviation will be established at this Navy yard some time this winter with students of the Curtis machine gun to be created at Pittsburg will meet has been made as yet, although there is no denial made of the rumor.

WILL ASK FRANCHISES FOR NEW CORPORATION

MARTINEZ, Nov. 4.—Franchisees for the new gas and electric light plant proposed to be erected at Pittsburg will be asked for by Van Britton, son of John E. Britton, head of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, at the next meeting of the board of supervisors Monday night. Britton last month is accused of embezzling the United States mails.

Nealon, having a heavy load, is alleged to have dumped a pack of periodicals and election literature in a lumber yard.

William McShane, the stevedore who, on October 28, dropped a tin of opium out of a bunch of bananas on the water front, and Leon Hung, who was arrested with forty-six tins of opium in his possession, are the other men accused.

HELD FOR BROTHER'S DEATH

SANTA ROSA, Nov. 4.—Benjamin Roberts has been charged with the crime of murder for having stabbed his brother, Charles Roberts. The crime was committed at Mount Olivet several weeks ago. Benjamin Roberts, who is just 19 years of age, stabbed his brother in the abdomen as the result of a drunken row. He claims that he acted in self-defense. The injured brother lingered several weeks, but finally succumbed to his injuries.

LEGAL WRITER DEAD.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Dr. James Williams, Hon. LL. D. of Yale and high sheriff of Hampshire, contributor of a hundred legal articles in successive editions of the Encyclopaedia Britannica, is dead here. He was born in 1851. He was the author of a number of books on law, including "The Schoolmaster and the Law," "Will and Succession," "Law of Education," "Institutes of Justinian," "Dante as a Jurist" and "Law of the Universities."

POLICEMAN KILLS WATERFRONT THUG

Plainclothes Men Shoot One Holdup Man; Capture Companion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—For the second time in two days a police officer killed a man in the discharge of his duty at a late hour last night. James Dwyer, a holdup man, died at 4:30 this morning at the Central Emergency hospital, four hours after he and his companion, Lewis Murphy, had attempted to rob Policemen Thomas W. Maloney and James O'Donnell, who were in plain clothes.

The frequent holdups on the waterfront, and the fact that the district bounded by Broadway, Market, Battery and East streets had become unsafe for pedestrians after nightfall, had led to the detailing of the patrolmen in that section.

The officers were walking along Battery street, near Washington, when their attention was attracted to two men acting suspiciously and they decided to investigate. Before they had had an opportunity the pair approached, and one of them, armed with a revolver, ordered hands up. Maloney was slightly behind O'Donnell, and at sight of the gun took out his own pistol and fired, striking the thug in the neck and dropping him to the pavement.

BOTH SUBDUED.

O'Donnell struck the second man, Murphy, with his fist, and both were quickly subdued. Dwyer was rushed to the Harbor Emergency hospital, where he refused to make a dying statement to the district attorney, and soon lapsed into unconsciousness.

Murphy, who said he was a stevedock, was charged with attempted robbery and declared that he had met Dwyer earlier in the evening, who had asked him to accompany him and make some easy money. He declared that he had no idea that a holdup was contemplated.

Murphy, it was learned, was sent up from Los Angeles for grand larceny in 1906. He just returned from the southern city, where he painted all poles on the new Postoffice building.

On Wednesday night Policeman Heame was compelled to defend himself against a "bum" in the Latin quarter and killed him with his club.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY MAKES FINAL REPORT

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—The Federal Grand Jury made its last report before retiring and received the thanks and commendation of United States District Judge de Haven yesterday. Incidentally, ten indictments were returned for various trivial offenses, seven of them being placed on a sealed file because of the non-appearance of the defendants. The three made public are as follows: John G. Nealon, an extra mail carrier, employed during the election last month, is accused of embezzling the United States mails.

Nealon, having a heavy load, is alleged to have dumped a pack of periodicals and election literature in a lumber yard.

William McShane, the stevedore who, on October 28, dropped a tin of opium out of a bunch of bananas on the water front, and Leon Hung, who was arrested with forty-six tins of opium in his possession, are the other men accused.

BODY OF BABY IS FOUND IN SEWER

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—With its thin little arms crossed carefully over its breast, the naked body of a 4-months-old baby was found at the mouth of a large outlet sewer at Coso and Bernal avenues yesterday.

$20,000 IN REGISTERED PACKAGE DISAPPEARS

LYNCHBURG, Va., Nov. 4.—A registered package containing $20,000, a remittance from a Bluefield, W. Va., bank to a correspondent, is said to have disappeared from the mails last Friday night between Bluefield and Charlottesville, Va. Postal investigators began an investigation yesterday.

BULLS DOMINATED SALES THIS WEEK

Progression Follows Depression on New York Stock Exchange.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The most vigorous movement of several months occurred this week on the Stock Exchange. The acute depression of last week, which followed filing of the dissolution suit against the United States Steel Corporation, was forgotten and stocks were pushed upward rapidly by an aggressive bull party. The short interest was forced to cover extensively.

The improvement was attributed to increased confidence, owing to the unexpectedly good quarterly report of the steel corporation, indicating that the industrial situation was better than had been represented, and to the attitude of the government toward the reorganization plan of the American Tobacco Company.

The Attorney General's acceptance of the plan, with modifications, was seized upon as presenting a basis upon which the difficulties confronting not only the tobacco company, but other corporations under the Sherman law, might be adjusted.

An improvement in business conditions was reported.

Call money rose to three per cent for the first time since January, owing to requirements at the beginning of the month, but the rates soon relaxed.

MANUFACTURERS ASKED TO ADVERTISE FAIR

A request has been received by the chamber of commerce from the Panama-Pacific Exposition company that the local manufacturers of all articles which are sent throughout this country or abroad the adoption of some device to be used to advertise the fair of 1915. A number of San Francisco producers have been making use of all of paper pasted on jars of canned fruits and similar articles inscribed with the name of the Exposition.

"California Welcomes the World to the Exposition City, San Francisco, 1915," while others have employed a device declaring that "California Invites the World to the Panama-Pacific Exposition, San Francisco 1915." It is some such method of advertising that the Oakland manufacturers are asked to approve.

CHANGE MADE IN RATING OF SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 4.—The State Board of Education has ordered that the official school day on which the average day attendance is based for the apportionment purposes be changed from a day of four hours to one of four recitation periods. In many instances students of high schools are not in school except at recitation periods, as they do their studying at home and work at various pursuits during the daytime study periods in order to support themselves in school. They are just as diligent as those students who spend full time in school, but could not be rated the same under the old custom.

More than 200 teachers of California were granted life and special diplomas at the meeting today.

FIVE AND TEN-CENTERS TAKEN INTO MERGER

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—A combination of 5 and 10-cent stores is in process of formation, headed by F. W. Woolworth, who first began limiting his wares to a dime in Lancaster, Pa., a number of years ago. The new company will go under the name of F. W. Woolworth & Co., and will own and control over 600 stores in the United States, Canada and Great Britain. The capitalization planned for the concern will consist of $15,000,000, 7 per cent preferred, and $50,000,000 common stock. Bankers of New York and London are behind the organization.

SLAUGHTER OF ARABS APPALS

Porte Lodges Protest With the Powers Signing Hague Agreement

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 4.—The government has lodged a protest with the powers which signed the Hague agreement of 1907 against the execution of Arabs in Tripoli.

CHOLERA ON INCREASE.
BERLIN, Nov. 4.—The Lokal Anzeiger's Tripoli correspondent says: "Italy's loss in Tripoli since October 23 amounts to 1500 men, of which 280 were killed. Eighty-seven soldiers are suffering from cholera." "The Italians," continues the correspondent, "have executed 4000 Arabs, including 400 women and children. Cholera is rapidly increasing among the Arabs and Jews. No room exists in the city for the expected reinforcements and their arrival must further increase the ravages of the cholera."

OBJECTIVE CHANGED.
ROME, Nov. 4.—It is understood that Italy has abandoned the idea of occupying one or more islands of the Grecian archipelago as a means of ending the Turkish war, as it is now considered that this would not bring sufficient pressure on Turkey to compel her to yield. It is more probable that a naval demonstration off the Syrian coast, with the eventual occupation of some point, has been decided upon.

NOT A VIOLATION.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Italy's use of the aeroplane in dropping grenades into the Turkish camps, it is declared here, is not a violation of the fourteenth agreement of The Hague conference of 1907, prohibiting the use of air, craft in the dropping of projectiles and explosives, "or by other new methods of a similar nature," in so far as that country is concerned.

The last official report of countries which have signed the agreements enacted by the 1907 conference, received at the State Department last June, showed that while Turkey had signed this particular agreement, Italy had not.

As the agreement is only binding when war takes place between two or more signatories, in this case it is binding on neither power. In any event the convention is only binding for a period extending to the adjournment of the third peace conference.

TURKS TRAP ITALIANS.
LONDON, Nov. 4.—A correspondent of the Reuter Telegram Company, limited, who arrived at Malta today from Tripoli, says the Italian government has wholly misrepresented the situation at Tripoli, that the Italians have lost well over 1000 killed and wounded and held only half the ground they held three weeks ago. They are confined by an active enemy that is within a few yards of them, while cholera is raging among their troops.

COURT FACES SIX HARD JUVENILE PROBLEMS

Judge Brown Makes Attempt to Solve Them, But Is Not Sure of Results.

EACH UNIT HAS AN ANSWER OF ITS OWN

School of Youthful Experience Not Always the Best of Curriculums.

Living the life of a nomad has lost its charm for Harry Pulleat, who appeared yesterday in the Juvenile Court before Judge Everett Brown and asked to be placed in an institution, where he might receive protection from the winter winds and improve his physical and mental condition. Recently he was found walking along a country road in search of a friend and also of employment, which has been offered him by someone, who applied to Judge Brown for permission to place him in a candy factory, where he may learn the business. The boy's father, who has been unable to provide a suitable home for his son, stated that he was willing to have Harry go with the stranger, Henry Evers, who first met the lad while he was on a tramp, and Judge Brown permitted Harry to go with Evers, who will take care of him. The youth will report to the probation officer.

Louis Swens was marshaled into court because he had stolen a bicycle while he was under the influence of liquor. He stated that he was asked to assist in making wine and while doing so was invited to drink a small quantity, which had an evil effect upon him. The probation officer recommended that he report weekly at the Detention Home and Judge Brown dismissed the boy with a probation sentence.

ADVISED WHIPPING.
When his mother was asked by the judge what he should do with the boy, she said: "If he had a good whipping, it would do him some good, perhaps. Well, Judge, I'll leave it to you. Whatever you say will be alright. I don't think the Aid Society has done him any good. He is as unruly as ever, and I don't think anyone can make him behave if I can't, but I'll let you decide, Judge."

"Whipping will not remedy the trouble," said Judge Brown, who turned to the boy and asked what should be done. In a very low tone, he said, "Nothing." The boys left home without a penny. They didn't know where they were going to get the next morsel of food as they didn't carry any provisions with them. They didn't even know where they would sleep during the night. According to their statements they slept in a hay-stack for several nights.

Judge Brown committed two of the boys to the care of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society and the third will probably be sentenced later.

Frank Russ, who cultivated the habit of stealing rolls, bread and cake from one of the houses of this city and who ran away from his parents when they requested him to go to school, was sentenced to the Orphanage at Watonsville.

Judge Brown complimented Mrs. Frances Lemon, secretary of the Associated Charities, upon her methods in securing employment for the needy.

DEPLORE CONDITION OF EIGHTH ST. FILL

Property Owners to Petition Commissioners to Remedy Dangerous Evil.

Protesting that property belonging to the city of Oakland in the vicinity of the Eighth street bridge is in a deplorable condition to such an extent that quantities of refuse being dumped there for the purpose of completing the fill extending south of the Twelfth street dam, is a harbor for rats and flies and that the residence district in East Oakland immediately adjoining suffers considerably from these pests, property owners have prepared a petition addressed to the commissioners asking that steps be taken at once to remedy the evil.

The paper is being circulated by L. E. Mullally of 930 Fifth avenue and W. S. Goodfellow of 923 Fifth avenue. It is as follows:

To your Honorable Body, The Oakland City Commissioners:

In view of the lack of progress being made with that part of the Lake Merritt fill, bounded on the south by the Eighth street bridge, we the undersigned citizens, taxpayers and residents of East Oakland beg leave to protest against the disagreeable, unsightly and insanitary refuse being dumped on the Eighth street side and which causes a stench in the community of East Oakland.

Inasmuch as the community of East Oakland pay their share of taxes of the city of Oakland, we do not understand why we are not treated with the same consideration on the Eighth street side of the fill as has been given the Twelfth street side of said fill. Surely it cannot be so difficult to complete with proper dressing and similar to that used on the Twelfth street side a strip at least 200 feet wide, the entire length of the bridge.

We feel that as so much has been done on the Twelfth street side, we are now entitled to some consideration on the Eighth street side.

In speaking of the matter Mullally said today: "We do not ask that the whole fill be completed at this time but that a narrow strip, topped with loam be placed along Eighth street for the entire distance so that an eyesore that has been the object of discussion for a number of years may be made more presentable. The people in that vicinity of East Oakland feel that inasmuch as the city has made East Twelfth street more attractive to the traveling public, something should be done along Eighth street at once."

A large number of persons have already signed the petition but it is not considered as necessary that the hundreds who would be willing to sign be referred to, those having charge of the matter feeling that the commissioners will be convinced of the urgent necessity of the work being done without further delay.

The steam schooner Vanguard, Captain Riensertsen, arrived this morning from Portland and laid alongside Long wharf, where she proceeded to dispose of her cargo of 500,000 feet of lumber. T. Peterson, who has charge of the discharging of the vessel's lumber, is endeavoring to set a record for quick discharging. On account of the smallness of the Vanguard's donkey engines it was impossible for him to make the attempt and anchor here Peterson declares that he will show "her some speed" in getting off lumber. Captain Riensertsen reports having had fine weather during the run. The steam schooner Washington, Captain Winkel, came in and dropped anchor at Long wharf this morning. She was carrying four cars of general merchandise for Portland via Astoria. The vessel comes from Portland and reports that fine weather marked the entire run from the north. After taking on her cargo from this side she will steam over to San Francisco, where the remainder of her cargo will be picked up.

DISCHARGES LUMBER.
The steam schooner Pasadena is at the Sunset Lumber company's wharf discharging 150,000 feet of lumber. The Pasadena comes from Alton and is in charge of technical battery upon seven-year-old June Rhodes in Justice of the Peace Robert Edgar's court yesterday afternoon and was fined $50. The complainant was Mrs. Nina Rhodes, mother of the girl. Avansino was accused of enticing the child, with another girl of about the same age, into his shop, where he is alleged to have hugged them.

COLLEGE CLASSES TO COMPETE FOR TROPHY.
During the early part of December a track meet will be held at St. Mary's College, when the classes will compete for the trophy donated by M. Schenfeld, an Oakland jeweler. Tomorrow afternoon the Clarks will meet the baseball team of St. Mary's College on the college campus. The second team of football at St. Mary's will play the second team of Santa Clara College, on the Santa Clara College campus, next Wednesday afternoon.

BURGLARS ROB TWO FLATS OF JEWELRY.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—A pair of flats at 1335-1337 Hayes street were ransacked by burglars during the absence of the owners about 9 o'clock last night, and J. C. Little lost jewelry to the amount of $16 and Mrs. A. Hansen was robbed of valuables to the amount of $51.

The tailor's establishment of Jacob Seltzer, 1734 Sutter street, was broken into last night and bolts of cloth to the value of $800 were stolen.

New Jewelry Store for San Francisco.
It is impossible, in short space, to do justice to the wonderfully comprehensive and beautiful display of jewelry and silversware to be seen at the new store of Treat & Eacret, 138 Geary street. Here may be seen all that is newest and best selected from the products of the most famous makers of these wares. Every article has been chosen with the utmost care and with a full knowledge of the taste and requirements of the San Francisco and Oakland public.

The store setting in which these goods are displayed is unique and admirable. The woodwork is of red gum, the walls being paneled with rich golden brown brocade of harmonious tones. Everything has been arranged for the utmost comfort and convenience of the public.

The principals in the new concern, Mr. Walter P. Treat and Mr. Godfrey Eacret, are both well and favorably known.

BATTLE 15 HOURS WITH TERRIFIC GALE AT SEA

Crew of Steamer Curacao Tell Tale of Fight With Storm.

VESSEL ARRIVES AT LOCAL WATERFRONT

Oakland Harbor Presents Busy Appearance These Days.

The steamer Curacao, Captain Paulson, steamed in and laid at berth 18, Long wharf, this morning and proceeded to take on a cargo of 20 carloads of cement to be shipped to Seattle. With the steamer comes a thrilling tale of a 15 hour battle with a terrific gale off the coast of Mexico on October 17.

According to Captain Paulson is was the worst storm in that part of seas for 20 years and according to estimates the gale reached a velocity of 110 miles an hour, which is certainly some storm. The steamer rode the heavy seas that frequently burst over her deck like a duck and with the exception of a little seasickness on the part of the passengers, no damage resulted.

The storm occurred a few miles off Mazatlan. The Curacao in company with the steamers City of Sydney and the Bonita were steaming along together when the storm broke.

PUT OUT FOR SEA.
The three vessels put out for the open sea and after the storm had blown over returned to the port of Mazatlan. The Curacao has been changed from the Mexican run to that of the Alaska coast and this trip will be the first run to be made to the cold regions of the southeastern Alaska coast. The steamer Curacao on the Mexican run.

The steam schooner Arctic, Captain Linder is at Long wharf after red to be shipped to Port Bragg. Pleasant weather marked the entire run from the north.

The three masted schooner Lizzie Vance, Captain Osterhuis, arrived this morning from Gray's Harbor and is discharging a cargo of 150,000 feet of lumber, run from Gray's Harbor was easy for a steamer as the weather conditions were ideal, no wind blowing or heavy seas running, but for a schooner the weather was too fine for the schooner was becalmed much of the time.

COMES FROM PORTLAND.
The steam schooner Hoquiam, Captain Riensertsen, arrived this morning from Portland and laid alongside Long wharf, where she proceeded to dispose of her cargo of 500,000 feet of lumber. T. Peterson, who has charge of the discharging of the vessel's lumber, is endeavoring to set a record for quick discharging. On account of the smallness of the Hoquiam's donkey engines it was impossible for him to make the attempt and anchor here Peterson declares that he will show "her some speed" in getting off lumber. Captain Riensertsen reports having had fine weather during the run.

The steam schooner Washington, Captain Winkel, came in and dropped anchor at Long wharf this morning. She was carrying four cars of general merchandise for Portland via Astoria. The vessel comes from Portland and reports that fine weather marked the entire run from the north. After taking on her cargo from this side she will steam over to San Francisco, where the remainder of her cargo will be picked up.

DISCHARGES LUMBER.
The steam schooner Pasadena is at the Sunset Lumber company's wharf discharging 150,000 feet of lumber. The Pasadena comes from Alton and is in charge of technical battery upon seven-year-old June Rhodes in Justice of the Peace Robert Edgar's court yesterday afternoon and was fined $50. The complainant was Mrs. Nina Rhodes, mother of the girl. Avansino was accused of enticing the child, with another girl of about the same age, into his shop, where he is alleged to have hugged them.

COLLEGE CLASSES TO COMPETE FOR TROPHY.
During the early part of December a track meet will be held at St. Mary's College, when the classes will compete for the trophy donated by M. Schenfeld, an Oakland jeweler. Tomorrow afternoon the Clarks will meet the baseball team of St. Mary's College on the college campus. The second team of football at St. Mary's will play the second team of Santa Clara College, on the Santa Clara College campus, next Wednesday afternoon.

BURGLARS ROB TWO FLATS OF JEWELRY.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—A pair of flats at 1335-1337 Hayes street were ransacked by burglars during the absence of the owners about 9 o'clock last night, and J. C. Little lost jewelry to the amount of $16 and Mrs. A. Hansen was robbed of valuables to the amount of $51.

The tailor's establishment of Jacob Seltzer, 1734 Sutter street, was broken into last night and bolts of cloth to the value of $800 were stolen.

New Jewelry Store for San Francisco.
It is impossible, in short space, to do justice to the wonderfully comprehensive and beautiful display of jewelry and silversware to be seen at the new store of Treat & Eacret, 138 Geary street. Here may be seen all that is newest and best selected from the products of the most famous makers of these wares. Every article has been chosen with the utmost care and with a full knowledge of the taste and requirements of the San Francisco and Oakland public.

The store setting in which these goods are displayed is unique and admirable. The woodwork is of red gum, the walls being paneled with rich golden brown brocade of harmonious tones. Everything has been arranged for the utmost comfort and convenience of the public.

The principals in the new concern, Mr. Walter P. Treat and Mr. Godfrey Eacret, are both well and favorably known.

FLORIST FINED FOR ALLEGED BATTERY

BERKELEY, Nov. 4.—Antone Avansino, an Italian florist, was found guilty on a charge of technical battery upon seven-year-old June Rhodes in Justice of the Peace Robert Edgar's court yesterday afternoon and was fined $50. The complainant was Mrs. Nina Rhodes, mother of the girl. Avansino was accused of enticing the child, with another girl of about the same age, into his shop, where he is alleged to have hugged them.

DAYLIGHT BURGLARS RANSACKED HIS HOME

M. E. Spaulding of 361 Lee street reported to the police this morning that daylight burglars had entered his home yesterday afternoon during the absence of the family and had ransacked the place. Entrance was effected through the rear door, a skeleton key being used, by the thieves. Bureau drawers, chiffoniers and cabinets were ransacked and $5 in coin and some small jewelry was taken.

USED BABY AS GUARD BUT HUBBY BEAT HER

Rose O'Day has been granted an interlocutory decree of divorce in the superior court from Robert O'Day on the ground of extreme cruelty. She told the court that her husband often beat her. Once she tried to protect herself by holding the baby between O'Day and herself, but, she testified, O'Day got through this giant without difficulty and gave her a black eye with his big fist.

THERE'S NO RISK
If This Medicine Does Not Benefit You Pay Nothing

A physician who made a specialty of stomach troubles, particularly dyspepsia, after years of study perfected the formula from which Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are made.

Our experience with Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets leads us to believe them to be the greatest remedy known for the relief of acute indigestion and chronic dyspepsia. Their ingredients are soothing and healing to the inflamed membranes of the stomach. They are rich in pepsin, one of the greatest digestive aids known, and they relieve the distressing effects of almost immediate, their use with persistence and regularity for a short time brings about a cessation of the pains caused by stomach disorders.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will insure healthy appetite and digestion and promote nutrition. As evidence of our sincere faith in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, we ask you to try them at our risk. If they do not give you entire satisfaction, we will return you the money you paid us for them without question or formality. They come in three sizes, prices 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain them only at The Owl Drug Co., located in Oakland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Sacramento, Portland, Seattle, Spokane.

REDUCES PRICE OF STATE SCHOOL BOOK

New Physiology to Cost Thirty Cents Instead of Former Forty-five Cents.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 4.—The school children of the state will pay 30 cents for the new state physiology, as compared with 45 cents, the former price of the book, published by the state board of education, and paid heretofore by pupils for the book formerly in use.

Governor Johnson stated last night that the fixing of his price by the state board of education representing the state at large, and the publishers' price, is only the beginning of future reductions of still greater extent in other school books.

The 30-cent price of the new physiology includes the following items:

Cost of manufacture by the state printing plant, 15.5 cents; royalty, 6.5 cents; postage, 7 cents.

That is, the postpaid price of the book to pupils is 30 cents. This book is at little more than the publisher's price, the same author, which is now being sold in Sacramento by a private firm at 45 cents.

The cost of manufacture was estimated by State Printer James H. Denham, but the state board of control sent its cost expert, J. P. Denham, through the printing plant, and he followed each item, finally arriving at 15 cents as the real cost. Ten per cent reduction in the price of the book, the state board of education accepted the cost estimate as 15.5 cents.

The manufacturing cost of the old book was 29 cents and the royalty paid therefor was 12 cents.

The reduction in the price of the physiology shows that, contrary to the claims of the book companies, the state is able to print its own books at a saving of 33 1-3 per cent over their charges," said John F. Neylan of the state board of control.

There are 25,000 copies of the new physiology on hand, and they will be placed on sale at once to book dealers of the state.

U. C. DEBATORS WIN
FROM STANFORD BOYS

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 4.—The University of California was victorious last night in the nineteenth annual debate between the rival universities. The question at issue was "Resolved, That the judges should be exempt from recall." California supported the affirmative of the argument, Stanford the negative.

The debate was held in the assembly hall here. Professor Frederick C. Woodward of the Stanford law school presided. The judges were Eugene Weiland of San Francisco, Frank Morton, principal of the Lowell High school, and Father Joseph M. Gleason of Palo Alto.

T. B. Kittredge, H. H. Phleger and L. Z. Goodman were the University of California debaters. The Stanford men were W. E. Simpson, W. B. Owens and P. L. Higgins.

ONE AMENDMENT
ONLY, DEFEATED

Election Returns Complete Are Given Out by Secretary of State.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 4.—Secretary of State Jordan completed last night his compilation of the official returns from the constitutional amendment election of October 11. The returns were hastened in order to permit the women to vote without question at the city election in Los Angeles December 4. The point had been raised that they could not vote within thirty days after the official announcement of the result.

For the first time the announcement is made that one of the twenty-three amendments was defeated. This was No. 19 on the ballot, and it authorized members of the Railroad Commission and peace officers to accept railroad passes. The amendment was defeated by 6132 votes. All the other amendments were carried.

The highest total vote was on the suffrage amendment, 246,847. The suffrage amendment won by 3587, the smallest majority given to any one of the successful twenty-two.

HIGHEST VOTE ON NO. 9

The highest majority was given to No. 9, eliminating technical appeals in criminal cases, 141,492. The recall amendment received 124,560 majority.

Two amendments besides equal suffrage received less than 10,000 majority, the others being the permission given the Legislature to abolish the office of justice of the peace and the exemption of $1000 in taxes for old soldiers.

HUMAN BONES FOUND IN BROOKLYN CELLAR

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Laborers excavating for an apartment-house to go up at 356-50 Second street, Brooklyn, found a number of human bones, including one skull. Brooklyn historians think they must be the remains of soldiers in Lord Sterling's Maryland regiment, which covered General Washington's retreat at the battle of Long Island in the Revolution.

Close to where the bones were found a memorial to Lord Sterling and his men has been put up by a historical society, on a spot marking the round-house where they made their final desperate stand. The line of march of Washington's army was along this same line from Second street to Greenwood Cemetery.

FIGHT OVER FAMOUS
POLO PONY AT END

HILLSBOROUGH, Nov. 4.—The legal war that Walter L. Brees, crack polo player of the Burlingame team, has been waging for months in the courts of San Mateo county against Eugene De Coulon over "Topo," a valuable polo pony, terminated abruptly yesterday when the two principals shook hands and pledged allegiance to the San Mateo Polo Club. The suit threatened to destroy the peace and harmony of the fashionable polo.

The pony was restored to Brees and a financial settlement was made that proved satisfactory to both.

NEW CARDINALS ORDERED TO ROME FOR RED HATS

ROME, Nov. 4.—The Pope has decided that all of those to be created cardinals November 29 must come to Rome to receive their red hats; that is, all except the Spanish and Austrian candidate who, by the laws of their countries, must receive the biretta through their sovereigns. The Pope wishes to avoid the period between this consistory and another later during which, otherwise, the new cardinals would hold the office without the formal and official sanction.

PREFERS CHARGES AGAINST BISHOP

Mrs. Carrie Cope Lays Her Complaint Before Methodist Board.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 4.—The action of Mrs. Carrie E. Cope, of Topeka, in privately communicating to the Methodist board of bishops in session at Oklahoma City, charges against Bishop David H. Moore of Cincinnati, is the third in a series of actions resulting from a factional fight in the women's home missionary societies of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the control of a bequest of $10,000 left by Fannie Murray, of Atchison, Kansas.

Two weeks ago Mrs. Cope filed a damage suit against Mrs. George Robinson of Detroit, a leading figure in the national women's home missionary society of the M. E. Church, for $50,000 alleged efforts to injure Mr. Cope's reputation for integrity. Mrs. Robinson's acts consisted of circulating a letter written by Bishop Moore in regard to the manner of handling the Murray bequest.

Week later Attorney General John Dawson filed suits against the Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the Kansas Conference to forfeit its charter.

The bringing of this suit is believed to have been prompted by the filing of the $50,000 damage suit at Wichita.

Now as the third step, Mrs. Cope asks that the Methodist bishops compel Bishop Moore publicly to retract statements contained in the letter which Mrs. Robinson is alleged to have circulated.

TEN MILLIONAIRES ON CHICAGO JURY

Insanity Tribunal Made Up of Capitalists Worth Fifty Millions.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Not until the opening night of the grand opera season will there be seen an aggregation of wealth approaching that which gathered on the West Side yesterday as jurors in the cases of alleged insanity at the County Detention Hospital.

All the traffic on Wood street, which passes the Detention Hospital, was ordered stopped during the hours the $50,000,000 jury was in session. More costly automobiles than are ordinarily seen at one time west of the river were drawn up in front of the curb.

The men who answered the roll at 8:30 o'clock, when the court convened, were the following:

Edwin F. Mandel, vice-president of Mandel Brothers.

Edward J. Lehmann, vice-president of "The Fair."

Harry Hunt, general superintendent of the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger Company.

J. P. Marsh, banker.

Dr. H. I. Davis, former superintendent of the Detention Hospital.

Arthur Mosker, general superintendent of Armour & Co.

Charles H. Swift, vice-president of Swift & Co.

Frederick L. Wilk, vice-president of the Union Trust Company.

Charles M. McFarlane, secretary of Morris & Co.

Rudolph C. Keller, cashier of the Colonial Trust and Savings Bank.

CHURCH TO ACT
IN PASTOR'S CASE

Accused Murderer of Avis Linnell Will Have Hearing Before Congregation.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—A special business meeting of the congregation of Immanuel Baptist church of Cambridge will be called for next Monday to take action on the resignation of the pastor, Rev. Clarence V. T. Richardson, who is under indictment for the murder of Miss Avis Linnell.

The regular weekly prayer meeting of the church was held last night, but was purely devotional, no mention of the minister's predicament being made.

At the conclusion of the service, however, an informal conference was held, at which it was decided that no action could be taken legally until next week. A petition signed by seven parishioners will be read from the pulpit next Sunday calling for the business meeting.

HEIR TO THOUSANDS TO RECOUP FORTUNE

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 4.—When refused the $20,000 remainder of his once $50,000 inheritance, Glen W. Corra, son of the late hotel man, A. G. Corra, has promised with Probate Judge Leuders and accepted $200 with which to repay his sister and $300 with which to go to Texas "to search for work." Even this fund was restricted. His guardian was ordered to turn over his ticket for him, buy him $75 worth of clothing, leave him $25 cash for "expenses," and $10 a week thereafter until the remainder of the fund is exhausted.

Corra is one of Cincinnati's best-advised citizens. He has had a spectacular career, both at home, in California and New York. His father, who was very wealthy, left a large sum of money, and Corra was one of the heirs. He has traveled a great deal and once enlisted in the navy. He spent some time in San Francisco and other California cities.

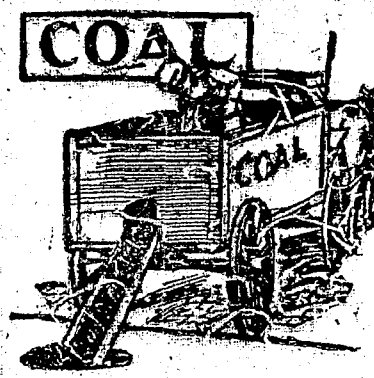

DRUMMERS TO PUT END
TO $50,000,000 TIPPING

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Commercial travelers of the United States have started a campaign against hotel tipping, which, they say, costs them $50,000,000 a year.

That sum, according to P. E. Dove, president of the Commercial Travelers' National League, is obtained by salesmen annually through bellboys, waiters and porters, in addition to $325,000,000 paid in regular hotel charges.

President Dove mailed to the various associations of hotel proprietors what he calls the "final call" of the traveling salesman.

In these he serves the ultimatum that traveling men are preparing to compile lists of private houses in various cities where they can secure accommodations without being "held up" for tips.

Head Surgeon of Boston City

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—Dr. David Scannell, head surgeon at the Boston City hospital, has resigned his professorship of surgery at Tufts College medical school, and, following his lead, every instructor in the surgical department of the school has resigned as a protest against what they term a gross slight inflicted upon Dr. Scannell.

Friends of Dr. Scannell say he was persuaded to sever his connection with Harvard in 1910 on the distinct understanding that he would become head of the Tufts Medical School. Instead, they say, he was put aside and his self-respect forced him to resign.

Meaning of Volatile
Matter in Coal

Volatile means capable of wasting away, or of easily passing into the aeriform state. Thus substances which affect the smell with pungent or fragrant odors, such as musk, hartshorn and essential oils, are called volatile substances because they waste away on exposure to the atmosphere. Many or most solid bodies are susceptible of volatility by the action of intense heat. This volatility when properly consumed in coal is one of the essentials of successful firing.

The Gentle Art of Making Enemies.

With fatuous inconsistency the Express and the Tribune of Los Angeles, both the property of E. T. Earl, appeal for harmony and unity of action to prevent the Socialists from getting control of the city, and then turn around and savagely denounce the Times and the Examiner for not doing as Mr. Earl wished them to do. For example, Mr. Earl (speaking editorially) says the Examiner's support of a candidate is proof of the unfitness of the candidate. Then he rails at the Examiner for supporting Mr. Mushet instead of Mayor Alexander in the primary campaign.

Mr. Earl apparently does not perceive that his contention is ridiculously inconsistent. If the Examiner's support would have proved Mayor Alexander to be unfit to fill the office he fills, why is he grieved that the Examiner supported another candidate?

He wrathfully says the support of the Times hurt Alexander, but it would have denounced the Times with still fiercer vituperation had it supported some other candidate. Mr. Earl simply hurls all sorts of accusations and epithets at journals which compete with him in business and disagree with his opinions. He is reckless, violent, bitter, rancorous and unjust in his references to his local contemporaries, whom he will not credit with a single worthy, sincere motive.

The Earl papers are in a sense organs of the Alexander administration. Perhaps it would be more accurate to say that Mr. Earl has more influence with the Alexander administration than any other man in Los Angeles. He has been called a boss. His "pull" with Alexander is notoriously strong. But it seems not to have occurred to him that he may have created many enemies for his pet candidate—that he drove votes away from Alexander by the character of the support his journals gave him and by the abusive diatribes he published against other newspapers and publishers. His arrogant assumption of censorship is made ridiculous by his impotent rage at the Times and the Examiner for treating his absurd dictation with contempt.

Mr. Earl's rule of action is an old one and quite simple. "Claim all the virtues for yourself and stigmatize your rivals as liars and crooks" has been the keynote of his journalistic policy. He applies the same rule to politics. But Mr. Earl is not a redeeming and avenging angel any more than General Otis and William Randolph Hearst are abandoned criminals. His methods, are anything but commendable, and there are plenty ready to affirm that his morals are no better than his methods. If Job Harriman is elected Mayor of Los Angeles this month, one of the chief causes will be E. T. Earl. A good many citizens voted against Mayor Alexander at the primary under the conviction that they were voting against Mr. Earl.

The late Kyrle Bellew was not a great actor, but he was a pleasing and adaptable one. His aptitude in portraying characters not in themselves real made him a stage favorite and a valuable leading man for managers. His genius was not tragic, neither was his histrionic taste, but he did everything well and had the faculty of giving vitality to artificial characters and reality to forced and unnatural scenes. We are not sure this is not very high praise—it is certainly intended to commend his fidelity to his art.

California Still the Golden State.

It was the discovery of gold that brought the rush of settlement in the early days, but the wonderful agricultural development of modern times has obscured the fact California is still a large and steady producer of gold. Gold mining in this State is still a profitable and extensive industry, and promises to be for many years to come. Charles G. Yale, statistician of the United States Geological Survey, recently delivered an address before the Institute of Mining Engineers, in San Francisco, in which he called attention to California's steady yield of gold. It is today the most reliable gold producer of any State in the Union. Each year her gold mines add from eighteen to twenty millions to the wealth of the nation and the world's stock of gold.

California has produced a little more than half of all the gold mined in the United States since 1792, up to and including 1908. The gross total of the production in all the States and Territories is $3,065,631,000. Of this amount California contributed $1,527,930,062. During the Civil War, when the country was flooded with paper currency and the credit of the nation was in peril, California produced $172,000,000 in gold. An inestimable treasure in a time of extreme disturbance when the government had nowhere else to turn for gold to maintain its credit and preserve the national integrity.

As Mr. Yale well says, California is still the Golden State. A war to extend slavery brought her into the Union as a free State, and the flood of gold she poured forth during the dark days of the war of secession contributed enormously to the success of the Union arms and to the overthrow of slavery.

Last year California produced $19,715,440 in gold. The year before the production was slightly greater, the figures of the United States Geological Survey being $20,237,870. Pretty good for a State that has been steadily producing for sixty-two years.

Why complain about the Chinese persecuting missionaries? Are they not persecuting the Rev. Clarence Richeson in Boston?

Early Christmas Shopping.

Christmas shopping has already commenced in many of the large cities. A Chicago dispatch says "the big retail stores report that Christmas shopping has begun earlier this year than ever before." Which means that people are wiser than they used to be. They are buying their holiday presents in good season, when they have ample time to examine goods and prices and can take their pick of novelties. By shopping early they have a larger field of selection and they get more time for their buying. They do not have to shop in a crush and buy in a rush. They are not compelled to take what's left and suffer in anguish of spirit from vain efforts to get attention in the surging crowds that throng the stores on the eve of Christmas. By going in advance of the crowd, shoppers get the pick of new and full stocks, get waited on promptly, and are enabled to choose precisely what they want. They can examine goods at their leisure and make their purchases fit their purses to better advantage. The last comers are always the worst served and the most dissatisfied. It is a comfort to those who have shopped early to note the mad haste with which the belated ones rush from store to store and push their way, disheveled, heated and irritated, through the throngs which pack the stores just before Christmas. The early shopper saves time, patience, temper and money, and enjoys the Christmas festivities with keener zest because the holiday buying was not put off till the last moment.

BREAKING THE SPEED LAWS

—PITTSBURG GAZETTE TIMES.

John Bull and His Ways.

It looks very much as if an agitation was being deliberately worked up in England to afford a pretext for intervention in behalf of the Turks. John Bull did not roar with horror and indignation when the Turks and Kurds were slaughtering and torturing the Armenian Christians nor did British sentiment rise in protest at the more recent atrocities perpetrated by the Turks in Albania. The victims there were Christians and the outrages were perpetrated by Mohammedans. Neither age nor sex was spared; women, even children, were violated; whole villages plundered and burned, and the inhabitants massacred.

England did not mind. She had engaged herself by treaty to protect these very people, but she did not do it. She did not raise a finger, did not even remonstrate with the barbarous tyrant on the Bosphorus, and did not vociferously execrate the hideous barbarities.

But it is the Turk who is now crying about the alleged cruelties inflicted upon them by Christians. The Mohammedan is complaining of Christian savagery, or rather England is making the complaint for the musselman. Promptly the British press flames and thunders. John Bull writes to the Times to express his horror of Italian barbarity and his sympathy for that oppressed innocent, the Arab. The British press was silent when the desert tribesmen were massacring and robbing the Armenian Christians and when the soldiers of the Sultan were committing the most horrible outrages on the Christian inhabitants of the Balkan peninsula. John Bull sent no letter to the Times complaining of Turkish barbarity and Christian suffering.

The English did not rage with horror and indignation when the Jews in Russia were being stoned, robbed, murdered and outraged in every conceivable manner. They were quite smug and complacent when Jews and Christians were victims, but they suddenly become wonderfully sympathetic when the Turk utters a cry of distress.

The British nation is the greatest humbug on earth. Its arrogant self-righteousness is a false pretense of the flimsiest description. Some hypocritical and discreditable motive is behind this manufactured indignation at Italian atrocities in Tripoli. The atrocities themselves are of British manufacture. They are reported to British journals from Malta, a British possession. One of the chief witnesses is an English officer serving in the Turkish army. The side this Englishman volunteered to take typifies the attitude of his country. He is for the Turk against the Christian. Very likely a part of his business is to fire the British heart against the inhuman Italian.

As we predicted, the vote on the liquor license question in Bakersfield was twice as large as the vote on the constitutional amendments. Which merely illustrates the fact that the average voter is disposed to lay much greater stress on local and transitory issues than on measures of vital but more general import. Hence the weakness of the scheme of direct legislation.

The politics of the suit to dissolve the Steel Trust is that the law is being enforced, much to the disgust, apparently, of the insurgents and the hide-bound conservatives. The trust magnates and the insurgent politician are prompted by the same motive—enforcing the anti-trust law is hurting their business. It interferes with the illicit money-getting of the high financiers and it sadly disarranges the political plans of ambitious demagogues. One side calls it destruction and the other side says it is a fake.

MEASURING CRIME WAVES

There are three main divisions of the records in regard to crime complaints, arrests and convictions. The police records in regard to arrests and convictions in New York city are accurate and well tabulated. The records of complaints received at the precinct station-houses, the detective bureaus and police headquarters appear to be in a chaotic condition. This fact was noted in the report of one of the grand juries which investigated the so-called crime wave. It is obvious that when the efficiency of the police is questioned the number of arrests and convictions will never be an accurate barometer of the prevention of crime. Nothing but a complete record of complaints will give even an approximate idea as to whether crime is increasing or decreasing. It is a fact that all complaints received are, or should be, recorded upon the station-house blotters, and also upon the proper records at the detective bureaus and at headquarters. Copies of the police blotters are, or should be, turned into police headquarters. The trouble appears to be that there is no adequate system of compiling and grouping these statistics by months, days, weeks, crimes, localities, etc., so that at any time it could be readily seen whether criminal offenses of any sort were increasing in any given period or district. Out-

THE OLD TOWN.

It was one of the inexplicable and scarcely endurable notions of grown folks that brick sidewalks did not look well with weeds in them. A notion even more destructive to society was that the small boy of the family should do the weeding. Here was an injustice so coarse as to be ludicrous. The boy thought the weeds were added attractions to the walk, and such as didn't think so had a right to do their own weeding. He didn't want the weeds out. He wanted them in. A fine coloring of dandelion greens helped a perspective of red brick sidewalk. This a savor of antiquity was given to it.

If he took no thought of the matter artistically, he at least was indifferent. Weeds bothered no one, and why should any one bother them? Yet once every two weeks a day found him with an old case knife facing a dismal prospect.

It was certain as fate that this very day would find no other boy in the neighborhood with a weeding job on his hands. It was certain that weeding would come unexpectedly on the very day for which an important matter of business had been arranged—fishing, swimming, or nutting (the confounded weeds lasted weeks into the fall—did we say they were artists?)

On the morning of this important day, just as the boy was finishing his last flannel cake, would come the maternal command to attend to them weeds in the sidewalk. O, darn! Then was needed a fine Italian diplomacy to hold the gang in check until then weeds had been dug out—if possible to set the other fellers at work with their Barlows—a fine Tom Sawyer tact and shrewdness needed there—or at least to keep them sitting along the curbstone until the job could be done. It is no wonder we have had some fine diplomats of the John Hay type.

Occasionally a job of sidewalk and gutter cleaning came in hand in one bundle of misery. Then farewell, cruel world. Let us use the case knife in the honorable Japanese fashion.

The parents of happy boys owned fifty foot lots. Some miserable fellers lived on corners and had as much as a hundred foot frontage with two hundred feet depth. They were miserable then but crafty. They are corporation lawyers, diplomats, or get rich quick men now.

All this is in the past tense, in prospect if not in reality, and the reality grows. There is one good trust. It is the brick trust. It is added and abetted by another good trust, the cement trust. We assume that there are trusts in these useful commodities.

One has made cement popular for sidewalks. The other, adding natural conditions, has made brick too expensive for such use. There are no weeds in cement. The small boy's declaration of independence contains a "we point with pride" to the cement trust. Three cheers!—Chicago Tribune.

AN AWESOME MYSTERY

The case of S. Chandler Rogers—or George Kelly, as he was known for more than a decade—serves to demonstrate how little science knows of the intricacies of that marvelous instrument, the human brain.

What subconscious "mind" served George Kelly in that long period of fourteen years, during which he served his country, married and won a distinct place in his own particular world?

What of the real "mind" of S. Chandler Rogers—the 17-year-old messenger boy of New York City—that stopped automatically on the night of May 1, 1897?

For fourteen years the latter personality apparently slept. The tablets of memory were sealed by the blow that the young messenger boy received on the head in a fight with thugs.

Yet the brain did not falter under the new duty imposed upon it. It took up a new task—a task in which S. Chandler Rogers had no part and in which George Kelly, a rollicking Irish lad, was the directing genius.

The facility with which that most delicate instrument assumed this amazing task is awesome. The tricky facility with which it recognized the impostor—or, should we say, created him?—is almost uncanny.

For fourteen years it performed its new duties effectively, and with such slight friction that no suspicion of the man's condition was aroused among those with whom he was intimate. Then came a catastrophic moment. Reason tottered and George Kelly was declared insane. Physicians in Seattle "rolled the stone from the tomb away." The bone that had been pressing upon the brain was removed. Automatically, the personality of S. Chandler Rogers reasserted itself. George Kelly was forgotten.

From the ancient tablets of memory inspiration came. To the victim the long obsession was as a single day.

It is possible that these fourteen years—a vast period in all the man's life—have left absolutely no impression upon his life? Did the faculties in the brain that made up his memory cease operating when his skull was dented by the thug's blow?—Seattle Times.

AMERICAN MANNERS

Prof. Giddings of Columbia University notes a "profound deterioration" in American manners and morals. However it may be with morals, further proof is needed that manners have declined. The testimony of many foreign observers is that they have improved in the half-century.

Present-day American manners may have less of a courteous flourish to them than gentlemen of the old school might desire. They are simpler and perhaps have a smack of business-like directness. But what they have lost in formality they have gained in uniformity. They are not the possession of one social class, but of all. American manners have undergone a democratization which has bettered their general quality and tended to eliminate the kind of "Americanism" which Dickens and Mrs. Trollope satirized.

Taking manners to mean morals, an age which has put the ban of public disapproval on prize-fighting, gambling and drunkenness, which has enforced laws against political corruption and discovered forms of dishonesty and immorality to astute men, has raised no scruples among our ancestors, cannot be hastily indicted for deterioration from earlier standards of conduct. It is not by the mob at a lynching, but by the added force of the moral sentiment which reprobrates the barbarity that the measure of American progress in manners is to be taken.—New York World.

20 YEARS AGO IN OAKLAND

The ladies who are engaged in the noble work of establishing a home for friendless young women and assisting them to secure employment, have almost reached the goal of success. Only a few thousand dollars more must be raised, and then the work on the home will be begun.

The movement to establish a pension fund for the public school teachers grows apace. Another meeting to consider the subject was held at the High School this morning and committee work arranged. The San Francisco teachers are co-operating with those on this side of the bay and the proposition is to place before the next legislature a bill creating the fund.

The Rockefeller Rhetorical Society gave an entertainment at California College last night. The attendance was large. President Holmes opened the exercises, telling of the work done by the society.

Joseph Knowland has donated a beautiful flag to the new Wilson school in Alameda.

Manager George Mothersole of the Oakland Theater has a fine list of attractions for the coming month. The next event booked at the theater is the great tug-of-war contest which will begin next Saturday night.

Mrs. Raul Chabot will give a reception at her residence on Madison street, November 24.

Mrs. S. K. Lathrop has returned to Oakland after a visit of several weeks in Los Angeles.

The Cottillon Club, that swell organization which claims to lead society in Oakland, gave its opening party for the season of 1911-12 at Military Hall last night. The great success of this party's past winter caused society to look forward for weeks to the opening party this winter.

MISS KATE FIELD, whose engagement to Henry W. Sharp caused a ripple of interest in society circles. —Webster Photo.

MISS KATHERINE REDDING, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Herbert Gee, of Berkeley.

FLOWERS seem an integral part of California, and our people use them in profusion for all sorts of decorations, and they carry many affectionate messages to and from friends. If a friend is ill, our flowers tell how very sorry we are. If a friend returns from abroad, they are brightened blossoms to express our welcome. If a young girl announces her engagement, her house immediately becomes a bower of bloom. Indeed, a whole book might be written on this modern "Language of Flowers."

There has never been a season in which the flowers have piled up in such masses for the debutantes as now. Each girl who has made her debut this winter has found herself surrounded by the rarest blossoms. It is as though her friends realized how rare and sweet she was—how exquisite and dainty the California girl may be—that they send her sweet lilies of the valley and dainty white orchids. One would like to whisper a word of warning to the florist; to say that elaborate designs for young girls are not necessary. One should only send bouquets—beautifully arranged, of course—or great masses of flowers, such as chrysanthemums of American beauty roses.

We are so fortunate in California as never to be out of lovely flowers. Our autumn brings to us gorgeous chrysanthemums, for which we indeed owe a debt of gratitude to far off Japan. And great trailing masses of Oregon grapevines come to us from over the mountains, and lovely autumn leaves from the McCloud river, and great bushes of cranberry plant come to us from mountain valleys and hill-slopes.

It is a joy to entertain in autumn, when our homes may be made bright with superb chrysanthemums, and their sweet fragrance steal out upon the autumn air. A bunch of violets in a dark tailored costume often gives the needed bit of color—just the final touch to an effective costume. Orchids seem to be the flower most in vogue in the smart sets on both sides of the bay. Almost every one can wear violets, but orchids are not becoming to all. Mrs. Harry Bishop and Mrs. George Gross are two well-known matrons who wear orchids very often. They seem to suit them admirably, and to perfectly adorn their costumes. Mrs. Etienne Lanel, who was formerly Miss Amy McKee, always wore orchids, and Mrs. Harold Spence Black, Mrs. Frank L. Brown and Mrs. Paul Dinsmore also are very fond of orchids.

Mrs. Harry East Miller and Mrs. William Thornton White are just the young matrons to look best with American beauty roses, and many prominent women are wearing this month a great, gorgeous white chrysanthemum to light up a dark-toned tailor gown. The Eversons are all very fond of carnations. Mrs. Isaac Requa and Mrs. Mark Requa are specially true to carnations; while Mrs. Frank C. Havens loves the rose. Mrs. A. A. More, Jr., is also specially fond of roses; and violets make a special appeal to artistic Mrs. Oscar Long.

Mrs. Lester A. Greene wears often American beauty roses; and Miss Christie Taft is stunning enough to be just the girl to wear orchids, and a great bunch of the beautiful flowers often add a finishing touch to her artistic gowns.

And so it is that in California we have given many new meanings to our favorite flowers, that, indeed, with us, we speak to each other in one of the most perfect ways in the world—in "the language of flowers."

OCTOBER BRINGS HANDSOME GOWNS.

The October gowns are the most beautiful in design and coloring that have been seen here in many seasons. The color tones are so very different, and the trimming takes on Oriental designs and tones that are charming. Costumes in the new purple shades are being worn by Mrs. J. P. Neville and Mrs. Charles Leonard Smith. The latter is wearing a most becoming tailor gown, a New York costume, in tones of purple. A high hat, also in purple tones, is worn with the perfectly fitting tailor gown, and one of the new shopping bags in tones of purple completes a very becoming and effective costume.

Mrs. Neville's handsome gown is designed for afternoon, and the costume in purple tones is set off by a wide hat elaborately trimmed in purple plumes.

Mrs. Andrew Welch, who has recently returned from abroad, has brought a number of handsome frocks from Paris and London. One of them shows a stunning combination of black and purple. The gown is black, and with it is worn a bonnet-like hat of black velvet and purple satin, the Paradise aigrette, with a pillow muf of black velvet, and purple satin, the color of the gown.

All trained gowns have unique effects this year, for the trains are so very peculiar. Sometimes they are one-sided, but for the most part they are suggestive of fish tails; or what is more romantic or picturesque, perhaps, they remind one of mermaids, the sort of pictures one used to find in one's book of fairy tales.

Miss Ernestine McNear is wearing an elaborate frock of pink satin and chiffon, and the gown has a separate train of black chiffon.

The Athearn Polgers are often in town now, for their young daughters, the Misses Evelyn and Genevieve Cunningham, are among the most popular debutantes of the winter. At a recent large reception Miss Genevieve Cunningham wore a striking costume, a Parisian frock in fuchsia shades, that combined brilliant red and brilliant blue chiffon and changeable silk of the same colors. Miss Harriet Alexander, who is so well known on this side of the bay, has brought back from Paris many pretty gowns. One of them is a very pretty Parisian effect, a gown of pink chiffon over blue, with gold trimmings.

Another girl across the bay who always wears Parisian frocks is Miss Ruth Winslow. One of her newest gowns is of changeable turquoise blue silk, made with an immense fichu of white thin silk. In fact, many of the dresses of the debutantes of the season are gowns of thin silk, with the ruffles and bands on the skirt that make special trimming, and yet do not add to the fullness of the skirt.

Some of the most beautiful costumes of the season were seen at the musicale evening given by the St. Francis Musical Art Society last Tuesday night.

Many very prominent people were present, as the singers were De Gogorza and Emma Barnes. Mrs. Phebe Hearst entertained one of the box parties, and Mrs. Hearst has long been known as one of the most perfectly gowned women on the coast. She wears costumes in dainty grays and in exquisite tones of violet, purple and mauve. And her jewels are chosen also with much taste, blending in color tones with the lovely shades of the gowns.

SILVER LACE AND YELLOW SATIN.

Mrs. Dixwell Hewitt, who was formerly Kate Clement of this city, sat in the James Tucker's box, and she wore an extremely handsome gown of silver lace over pale yellow satin. Gold fringe was draped in an artistic fashion across the bodice.

Mrs. Herbert Moffitt was one of the most attractive young matrons at the musicale, and she was beautifully gowned in soft black satin, draped in dull blue chiffon. Mrs. Moffitt was formerly Miss Marguerite Jolliffe, one of the bright belles of Fortnightly days on this side of the bay.

Mrs. Oscar F. Long is one of the most attractively gowned of the younger matrons, and one of the most correctly gowned as well. At a recent "at home" she wore a reception gown in dark tones, the costume set off with extremely beautiful ermine furs.

Mrs. Frank C. Havens has been following the exquisite New York tones of black and white, and her gowns are becoming to her special style. They are perfectly planned and rare laces and wonderful furs add to a wardrobe which contains many exquisite gowns.

Miss Marian Stone is to be one of the debutantes of the winter, and there were many compliments for her at the large Crocker reception across the bay. Her gowns were very elaborate of rose pink satin embroidered in silk.

One of the girls who looks very sweet and who is always exceptionally well gowned is Miss Ethel Crocker. She was a very dainty study at the Haynes-Selby wedding, in a gown of white satin, veiled in pink chiffon, the overdress embroidered in little pink roses, made of tinted ribbon. She carried a great Dolly Varden bouquet in a frilled lace holder. Her hat was small and was of velvet, edged with black marabout fur and pink roses.

One of the most elaborate gowns seen across the bay in recent days was that worn by Miss Lee Girvin. It has been attracting general attention and represents a really beautiful costume. The gown is a dainty white lingerie, worn with a deep coral pink satin coat trimmed with ermine fur, and the costume completed by a hat trimmed in brilliant velvet geraniums.

Mrs. Blanche Boardman, who spent the early autumn in New York, brought home some very attractive gowns. Mrs. Boardman dresses in much taste, and she also has been expressing the Paris notes of black and white in her effective gowns. At the Ebell Club recently Mrs. Boardman wore a white tailored costume, with excellent lines, and set off by a black hat trimmed with a large ostrich plume. Some of her other costumes, also in tones of white, are very exquisitely planned.

Miss Fussy Creed is one of the most perfectly gowned of the young girls on this side of the bay. There were many compliments for her at Miss Nellie Adams' debut reception, for her gown in white and gold effects was unusually attractive. Her Juliet cap of pearls was also very becoming, as these Juliet caps look best on young girls.

Mrs. Harry Weihe is a young matron over here who entertains a great deal and who looks exceedingly well. One of her afternoon gowns is a beautiful effect in pompadour silk, showing lovely tones of pink, blue and mauve.

BLACK AND GOLD TO THE FRONT.

Black and gold effects have been very much to the fore this season in afternoon and evening gowns. And along these lines two very handsome reception gowns have recently been worn by Mrs. Frank Watson and Mrs. Lee Cole Burnham. The costumes at the Crocker reception were among the handsomest seen at any gathering this season, and one heard many compliments for Mrs. Isaac Requa, who was one of the most popular of the guests.

Mrs. Requa knows a great many of the most prominent people across the bay, and she is a welcome guest at the large dinners and receptions given there.

She was an exceedingly fine study at the Crocker reception in a lovely gown of rare black lace over black satin, with a hat of lace, elaborately trimmed in black aigrettes. Other handsome gowns at the Crocker reception were those worn by Mrs. C. O. Alexander and Mrs. Templeton Crocker, both of whom have recently returned from Paris.

Handsome gowns were also worn by Mrs. Eggbert Stone and her daughters, Harriet and Marian Stone, Mrs. George McNear and Miss Ernestine McNear, Mrs. A. N. Towne, Mrs. Clinton Vorden, Mrs. Oscar Long, Mrs. Mark Requa, Mrs. Joseph Chanslor (Hattie Kimble).

A young girl from this side of the bay who looked extremely well at the Crocker reception was Miss Gladys Wilson.

Many pretty gowns were in evidence at the luncheon given by Miss Dorothy Churchill at the Palace for Miss Winona Derby. It was given in the concert room at the Palace, and among the very beautiful costumes were those worn by Miss Churchill, Miss Derby, Miss Amy Fowles, Miss Marian Huntington, Miss Marie Louise Tyson, Miss Doris Taft, Miss Gladys Wilson, Miss Ernestine McNear, Mrs. Lorraine Longstroth (Susie Hall), Mrs. Bertrand York (Miss Ruth Sadler) was also at the luncheon, looking exceedingly well in one of her very pretty trousseau gowns.

Mrs. Willard Williamson wears black so much that her friends rather resent it, as something personal if she puts on anything else. She is most attractive in gowns of black tones, with a wide black picture hat framing her expressive face.

All her friends know Mrs. Frederick Stolp's penchant for blue. It is the most becoming of colors, and pretty Mrs. Frederick Stolp is at her best when she chooses for her new gowns her favorite tones of blue.

MEDDLER PICTURES.

Miss Katherine Redding, whose picture appears in tonight's Meddler, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Herbert Gee of Berkeley. Miss Redding is the daughter of Alfred Redding of San Francisco and niece of Joe Redding of Bohemian Club fame.

Miss Kate Field is the pretty Berkeley girl whose engagement to Henry William Sharp, son of Craigie Sharp of Piedmont, created a ripple of interest in the society of the bay cities. Formerly the Field family lived in Alameda, but moved a year ago to Berkeley, where they have a charming home. Miss Field is a niece of the late Eugene Field, the beloved writer of verse.

Miss Mollie Dutton is a sister of Mrs. Josiah Howell and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Dutton. She is much entertained here.

Mrs. Herbert R. Baker before her recent marriage was Miss Nathalie Hunt, daughter of Mrs. Randall Hunt.

DAY DAWNS FOR ATHLETIC GIRL.

It is the day of athletics for girls, and already there begins to be apparent in the schoolgirls of today the effect of all the out-of-door exercise. A merry group of young people at Piedmont are enjoying delightful out-of-door pastimes in these beautiful autumn days. They are often guests of the Misses Amy and Sally Long, whose fine tennis court is now one of the best in the county. It is the same court on which their mother, Mrs. Oscar Long, and their uncle, Mr. Mark Requa, used to play in school days.

This summer Mrs. Long remodeled the court, and it is now in fine condition, and almost every day the young people of Piedmont may be found playing good games of tennis, for many of them have learned by practice to play an exceedingly good game.

Mrs. Oscar Long entertained for her young daughters last Saturday at a tennis tournament, which was the occasion for many most exciting games. About fifty young people were invited, and the tournament began at half after nine and lasted until three o'clock. Exceedingly good tennis was played, and some of the young players greatly astonished their elders, who had gathered to witness the game.

At last there came the finals, which were played by Amy Long and Will Magee on one side and Mary Adams and Jack Hampton on the other. It proved to be a most exciting match, which was won by Amy Long and Will Magee, and they thereupon won two very beautiful silver cups, presented to the winners by Mrs. Long.

During the intermission at one o'clock a very delightful "al fresco" luncheon was served by the hostess of the day, and the young players and their older relatives greatly enjoyed the beautiful picnic luncheon so delightfully planned and served by Mrs. Long.

Among the elder people present who were greatly interested in the prowess of the children were General and Mrs. Oscar F. Long, Mrs. Isaac Requa, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Requa, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. Granville Abbott, Miss Mollie Connors, Dr. Philip Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Magee, Mrs. W. E. Sharon, Mr. and Mrs. Kendall Morgan, Mrs. George H. Wheaton, Miss Bessie Palmer.

The Misses Long are planning to give another tournament in the spring, and one hopes that it may be as successful and as enjoyable as the one of last Saturday.

WELL-KNOWN PEOPLE ARE OUT OF TOWN.

In these autumn days many well-known people are out of town, and many of them have planned extensive trips.

Mrs. C. C. Clay left for the East on

MRS. HERBERT R. BAKER, a recent bride, who has been much entertained the unfortunate pair Sir Walter Scott assigned to it in his "Anne of Gelestein." But the gem must have appealed to so great a lover of beauty in animate and inanimate nature as Sir Walter and it must have been far indeed from his thoughts to engender superstition by giving a bad name to a precious example of creative energy.

PRINCE BRANDED BIGAMIST BY ACTRESS

Miss Moffitt Avers Newly-wed Victor Is Going to Face the Music.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Miss Josephine Moffitt, former New York actress, who for some time was called Mrs. Taxis, because of her claim that she was married to Prince Victor of Thurn and Taxis, declared yesterday that she was going to America to prosecute the prince for bigamy. She alleges that his recent marriage to Mrs. Lida Eleanor Fitzgerald was illegal.

Miss Moffitt occupies magnificent apartments in aristocratic Victoria street, in the same building which houses the American embassy. She insists on being called Princess of Thurn and Taxis, and is so known there.

"He called me 'Bab' and 'Snookles,' did he?" she quoted, sharply.

"Well, he called me 'Snookles,' top even though he may deny it now."

Here she produced a bundle of letters addressed to "Princess Taxis," New York. All were signed "Victor."

The recipient was called his "darling wife," and the letters contained other terms of endearment.

"I don't love him, because he's no good," went on the young woman, who is still handsome, even when angry.

"Mrs. Fitzgerald, I see, is quoted as saying she did not make him a prince, but would devote the rest of her life to making him a man. She'll have an impossible job."

"It has been said that our marriage consisted of clasping hands across a table. That is a lie. We were married by a notary named McGrath, in Newark, in October, 1907. I've got a record of the marriage, with name of the witness."

Besides, I lived with him in New York State, where he acknowledged me as his wife, so under the law of that time I was a common-law wife at least, and that was legal."

The Prince of Thurn and Taxis was married on the night of Oct. 20, 1907, to Mrs. Lydia Fitzgerald, heiress to the wealth of J. V. Thompson, millionaire coal operator.

Mrs. Roosevelt Ill

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—On the authority of a man who knows the family of former President Roosevelt well it was said yesterday that ever since Mrs. Roosevelt was thrown from her horse a month ago she has been seriously ill, and that she may never have been in attendance on Mrs. Roosevelt and that she is suffering from an injury to the back of her head. Mrs. Roosevelt has not been in the streets of New York since the accident. Dr. C. W. Fuller, the family physician, denied that the report was true.

She's Sweet 100

ADAMSVILLE, O., Nov. 4.—Miss Rachel Edith, who lives on the same spot of ground where she was born, will celebrate her hundredth birthday anniversary tomorrow. Today she said:

"I must confess that for 100 years I have never been kissed by any person except my mother. I have lived a long life and have had plenty of enjoyment. When I was a young girl I went to many parties and dances. We always had a good time and it always went without any of that you call spicing in it. I had plenty of chances to marry, but could never find a man I loved, so have always remained single."

Makes Merry; Dies

LONG BEACH, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Gertrude Conkle, the beautiful wife of C. C. Conkle, a wealthy resident of Seattle and well known in railroad and financial circles of Colorado and the Northwest, committed suicide at the home of her brother in this city Tuesday morning. She drank cyanide of potassium. News of her death was suppressed by the authorities.

Mrs. Conkle arrived in Long Beach about three months ago and was visiting at the home of her brother. At the house it was stated last night that Mrs. Conkle had been watched for many years by her relatives, who feared she would attempt self-destruction.

An hour before the suicide occurred, it was announced, Mrs. Conkle was the center of a merry party given in her honor at her home. Relatives now say they believe that Mrs. Conkle's unusual gaiety was due entirely to her insane joy in contemplation of her death, knowing that she had a never-failing means at her command.

Gets Small Sum

OREGON CITY, Nov. 4.—Judge Campbell in the circuit court yesterday awarded to Mrs. Clara Pearl Alisky temporary expenses during the trial in her cross-suit for divorce against Charles A. Alisky, Jr., but it was not down from what she asked for to comparatively small sums. She applied for $250 a month temporary alimony; she got $50 a month. Asking for $5000 "suit money," she was awarded $150. Another, instead of $1000 for attorney's fees, for which she petitioned, the court allowed her $200. All these amounts are to be paid in five days. Alisky was not in court.

Argument for Mrs. Alisky was on the issue that her husband's father is a millionaire and he is well able to furnish the "stewards of the matrimonial war." Mrs. Alisky is a sister of Maybelle Gilman Corey.

Actress Seeks $240,000

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Fannie Ward, the American-English actress, has begun suit against Marc Klaw of Klaw & Erlanger, the millionaire heads of the theatrical syndicate, for $240,000 for alleged breach of contract. The papers were served on Klaw two days ago.

While the suit is an outgrowth of prosaic business deals, the element of mystery has been added by the assertion of Miss Ward's friends that she has been robbed of the contract upon which she bases her case. They say the paper was taken from her apartments in the Hotel Rector, but that beyond inconvenience she will suffer nothing, as she is credited with having an attested copy of the instrument in England.

SOCIETY

MRS. EDWIN POND JAMES (Blanche, Tidale) has sent out cards for a large affair of the mid-month when she will entertain guests. Sixty-five guests have been asked to enjoy a game of bridge on the afternoon of Thursday, November 16.

Following the game a number of friends are expected for the tea, which will round out the afternoon.

On next Tuesday afternoon Miss Grace Downey will be a hostess at cards, entertaining the members of a card club, whose personnel includes Mrs. Frederick Farnum, Mrs. Roy Russell Cowles, Miss Sue Harold, Miss Madeline Clay, Miss Elizabeth Orrick, Miss Irene Farrell, Miss Lilla Marshall, Miss Lorraine Langstroth, Miss Dorothy Taylor and Miss Lullette Mauvais.

MASTICKS ENTERTAIN.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Mastick entertained at a dinner party at their pretty home in Vernon Heights on All Hallows' eve, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Demant and Mayor and Mrs. Noy of Alameda. The house was appropriately decorated, yellow chandeliers being used to carry out the Halloween color scheme, and Jack-o'-lanterns serving for lights. The proverbial witch and her broom decorated one corner of the diningroom. From each guest's place at the table a ribbon led to the witch's broom, where, concealed on the ends of the ribbons, were English walnuts, containing the fortune of each of the guests. The reading of these caused much merriment, and as Mrs. Mastick is a charming hostess and entertainer, frequently there were no dull moments for the visitors. Covers were laid at table for twenty-two.

Both Mrs. Demant and Mrs. Noy are recent brides and are prominent in society on this side of the bay. Mr. and Mrs. Demant are planning a trip abroad soon after the holidays to visit the former's old home in London.

GUEST OF HONOR.

Mrs. Howard Fassett, formerly Miss Em Lou Frieble, was made the guest of honor yesterday when Mrs. John Irwin entertained for her at an informal afternoon.

CHARLES BUTTERS TO ARRIVE.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butters will reopen their beautiful Claremont home, "Rose Lawn" the latter part of this month. The Butters are in New York at present, having arrived there some time ago from Europe.

SHOWER BRIDE-ELECT.

Miss Joy Wilson entertained at a delightful affair when she made Miss Lucy Harrison the inspiration for a shower. The girls present were Miss Ethel Wrangemeyer, Miss Florence Williams, Miss Muriel Williams, Miss Edith Clark, Miss Esther Clark, Miss Dorothy Woodward, Miss Mabel Loder, Miss Alice Paine, Miss Theresa Harrison.

ENJOYABLE EVENING.

A very pretty affair was enjoyed when the Misses Helen and Clara McGowan entertained at a Halloween masquerade given at their residence in San Francisco. The rooms were prettily decorated with greens, lanterns and orange ribbons. Dancing and games were the diversions of the evening, followed by a dainty supper. Among those who enjoyed the hospitality of the charming hostesses were: Margaret Hagemann, Louise Walde, Serena Nielsen, Marie Hagemann, Bessie Johnson, Nubia Walde, Hazel Shone, Kristine Seaborg, Ottilie Schubert, John Walde, Will Hagemann, Alfred Swift, Dana Walde, Ed Hartung, George Hansen, Hartwick Tande, Oscar Walde.

UNIQUE ENTERTAINMENT.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Thornton of Seventy-sixth avenue, entertained a few friends Halloween night in a delightful manner. Their house and grounds were decorated and especially wired for the occasion, and tall ghosts with bright heads illuminated the porches and the walls. The guests wore in mask and appropriate Halloween refreshments were served. The games were laughable, especially the apple dive. Music and dancing were the features of the evening. The characters represented were: Eustace, Farmer St. Elmer, Gloomy Gus, Mr. Bray, Flower Girl, Mrs. Bray, Witch of Macbeth, Mr. Quick, Black Angel, Mrs. Quick, the Lost Soul, Mrs. Dent and Mrs. Thornton, twin Cupids in yellow; Mr. Thornton, Simps Susan; Mr. McNaughton, Our Mary; Mrs. McNaughton, a Ghost; Mr. and Mrs. Pappin, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Rockbuster.

ARRIVED IN NEW YORK.

Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Russ, the latter was Mabel Andrews of San Jose, arrived in New York Monday after months spent in Europe. They will go direct to San Francisco, where they will make their home.

SAILED TODAY.

Freptiss N. Gray and wife sailed on the City of Sydney today for a four months' trip in the Western states via Panama. They will spend a week visiting the government work on the Isthmus, will arrive at Washington, D. C.

about the middle of December and spend the Christmas holiday with Senator and Mrs. Sherman (Mrs. Gray's parents). After visiting other places of interest they will return the last of January.

RETURN HOME.

Mrs. William G. Burrows and daughter Frances, who have been traveling for several months throughout the Eastern states and Middle West, have returned to their home in this city.

CLUB GIVES ANNUAL LUNCHEON.

The ladies of the S. B. D. Club gave their annual luncheon November 1 at Hotel Stewart in San Francisco. It was a most enjoyable affair. Following the luncheon they attended the matinee at the Columbia.

CLARE-MAKIN WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Anne G. Clare and William Makin was solemnized at St. Mary's church last Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Father Edward Dempsey officiating. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at a local cafe at which members of the families of the bride and groom and a few intimate friends were present. After a honeymoon, the young couple will make their home in Ricardo avenue, Piedmont, where the groom is now having constructed an attractive residence.

The bride has been a resident of San Francisco from her early childhood and her family is well known in the bay cities. Makin is a successful young business man and is prominent in the building fraternity of Alameda county.

Those present at the wedding were Mrs. J. E. MacCormac, Miss Helen Clare and Mrs. Russell W. Brown of Los Angeles, sisters of the bride; Joseph Makin, brother of the groom, Miss Alice Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oates, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Pedgrift and T. D. Sexton.

CHILDREN'S PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carpenter gave a birthday party in honor of their little daughter's seventh birthday anniversary, Miss Bernice Carpenter, at their new bungalow on Lexington avenue, at Rust. The children spent a very pleasant afternoon playing games, after which refreshments were served, when the little ones dispersed after wishing their hosts many happy returns of the day. The following were guests: Pearl Wright, Eleanor Costello, Irene Costello, Elma Klase, Ruth Klase, Edith Klase, Agnes Smith, Celia Perman, Gene McKenna, Bernice Carpenter, Miss May Hough of Berkeley, Mrs. M. Cook of Alameda, Miss Jean Gupille of Oakland and Percy Keeling of San Francisco.

OAKLAND'S BOYS AND GIRLS

'SPINNING WHEEL' TO BE PLAYED BY PUPILS

"The Spinning Wheel," from "The Flying Dutchman," will be presented at the graduation exercises of the Grant school by the Choral club, which is composed of sixty girls. Rehearsals for the production will soon commence under the direction of Miss Potter, one of the members of the faculty of the school.

The students of the class of December, 1911, will ask permission to give a dance at the end of the term. It will be the closing function of their grammar school days.

The class motto for which the pupils have been searching through the archives of the library will be selected Monday.

YOUTH SINGS HIS OWN COMPOSITION

A vocal composition created by himself, Frank Galvin, a student in the Manual Training and Commercial High School scored a hit recently at the entertainment given by the members of the Athletic Club of North Oakland in Loring Theatre, South Berkeley.

Galvin is featuring in a song written for the vaudeville stage upon which he has performed. "Harmony, Joe," the selection in which the young actor is starring has won him many laurels, which have encouraged him to study for the footlights.

HAWLEY'S MEN TO COME WEST

The Big Electric Power Plant Merger to Be Under Discussion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Edwin Hawley, the railroad and Wall street magnate, who has just resigned as president of the Great Western and other big power concerns, has changed his plans about coming to San Francisco from New York personally to go over the electric power situation in California, with a view to effecting an early merger of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company and the concerns controlled by Hawley. Instead he will send two representatives from New York to meet President Frank G. Drinn of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company this week. Negotiations have already been opened as to the price in stocks and bonds the Pacific Gas and Electric will pay for the Hawley companies.

Hawley's resignation is said to be a preliminary step in the tentative negotiations now in progress between the Pacific Gas and Electric and his companies for their absorption by the former. The merger is to be an exchange of the stock and bonds of the Pacific Gas and Electric for the securities of the other companies. On what basis this is to be on exchange is something that is being carefully guarded, and is only known in a general way at present even by the interested parties.

9 LOSE JOBS ON ARMY TRANSPORT

Organized Ring of Smugglers Supposed to Exist On the Pacific Fleet.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—The recent exposure of alleged graft conditions on board the transport ship, the Albatross, has resulted in the dismissal of nine officers and men from the army vessel, and, according to officers conducting the inquiry, is likely to result in uncovering an organized ring of smugglers, grafters and gamblers on ships of the transpacific fleet. An official investigation at Washington of the entire transport service has been begun.

The members of the Sheridan's crew who have been dismissed from service are: J. Denny, chief steward; H. J. Duggan, second steward; William J. Black, waiter; T. J. Robinson, cabin steward; F. Hodson, night watchman; Paul Zink, bellboy; J. Kreiger, waiter; E. Laws, store keeper.

Frederick Simmons, commissary clerk, has been suspended by Major H. P. Young in charge of the transports plying out of San Francisco. Charges against Simmons are being prepared for submission to the United States Civil Service board and should they be sustained Simmons will have to quit the service.

HEAR ADDRESSES ON LIFE OF THE U. S. INDIANS

Addresses upon natural history touching upon the life of the American Indians are being delivered in the Oakland Public Museum, where the children of the schools are attending the course daily.

The unique specimens exhibited in the building have attracted hosts of boys and girls, who have become interested in the historical growth of United States. Articles of value in the study of archaeology have caused much comment on the part of the young patrons of the museum, who have gleaned new light upon the origin of man.

The lectures will continue throughout the year, as they have proved beneficial to the students, who have made the course popular.

STRANGER FLEES WITH $800 LOAN

Kansas Resident Allows Money to Be Staked On Game and Is Robbed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Ernest Bear, a resident of Harper, Kansas, was robbed of $80 in Oakland yesterday by a man whom he met on the ferryboat and who took the money from him as a "loan."

Bear scraped up an acquaintance with a stranger while he was en route across the bay to see the sights of the neighboring city, was introduced later to a second man and watched the two matching coins. His companion had told him of a trick which he was going to work to win money from him, and he loaned him the $80. When the game was over and both men had disappeared, he realized that he had been robbed, and this morning notified the Harbor police. He took the overland for Harper later in the day.

SHOPMEN OFFER TO RENEW NEGOTIATIONS

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 4.—There will be no strike by shopmen employed on the Rock Island Railroad until a conference with a committee of three from each of the five federated unions is refused by the Rock Island officials, was the statement made by J. A. Franklin, international president of the Boilermakers' Union, last night. Franklin said the men would give the Rock Island officials another chance to meet their demands.

TO RETIRE AFTER 41 YEARS' SERVICE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Upon his own application, Colonel Alfred Reynolds, Twenty-second Infantry, will be retired from active service March 1, 1912, after more than forty-one years' active service. Colonel Reynolds was born in Pennsylvania in 1849 and was appointed to the military academy from New Jersey.

It Is a Trinity We Call Beauty

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyright, 1911, By Lillian Russell.)

IT SEEMS to me that the first thing that a woman should try to realize when she starts out to be beautiful, if her mother has not taught her it before, is that beauty is not of the flesh, neither is it of the spirit or mentality, but a happy, harmonious combination of all three. This was brought forcibly to my attention the other day by noticing how few people breathe correctly.

It probably seems to you, who read the magazines and newspapers that this is a much-talked-of and trite subject, and yet I wonder if you breathe properly. Do you fill your lungs with every breath and use the proper organ for breathing?

You doubtless know that nature provides an arrangement of fibers for straining the air before it is permitted to touch the sensitive linings of the throat and lungs and the natural warmth of the nose moderates the temperature in cold weather as well, but at least one out of every four women whom I meet breathes through her mouth. This is not only an unhealthy practice, but it also gives to the face of a woman a vacant, unintellectual expression; indeed, a prominent physician claims that on the manner of breathing depend not only our health, strength and happiness, but our morals, our spiritual growth, our powers of self-control and duration of life.

I know well that deep breathing will counteract nervousness, and I have seen women who have recovered almost miraculously from neurasthenia by keeping outdoors and practicing deep and regular breathing. Short, gasping, uneven breaths are hurtful; they keep the nerves in turmoil, as they are discordant. Adepts in breathing attach great importance to regular respiration.

Bad formation and arrangement of teeth, their decay, which are all great beauty blotches, can be traced to breathing through the mouth habitually, especially during sleep, when the gums, teeth and tongue become dry and various diseases of these organs are brought on.

Remember, pure air and our manner of taking it is wonderfully significant in preserving health and beauty.

LILLIAN RUSSELL.

M. GRAY.—Nothing is so effective for superfluous hair as the electric needle, as that gets to the roots of the hair immediately and destroys them. If you cannot afford that treatment, take enough pure peroxide of hydrogen to wet the skin, add a few drops of ammonia and rub upon the troubled parts. The peroxide will bleach the hair, making it less conspicuous and the ammonia will gradually kill the roots. If you will write me again asking for it and enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope, I will be glad to send you the skin food you desire.

WORRIED.—For redness of the nose one draw murice of ammonia, one-half dram tannic acid, two ounces glycerin and three ounces rosewater. Dissolve the murice of ammonia and tannic acid in the glycerin, then add the rosewater. Saturate a piece of absorbent cotton with the lotion and bind on the nose nightly until a cure results.

H. B.—The most effective remedy for superfluous hair on the face is the electric needle. Superfluous hair is a blemish to beauty and should be removed before it gets any heavier. Perhaps you did not use a good cream after using the green soap. Your skin may be fine and the soap is probably too strong for it. If you wish it write me again, sending a self-addressed stamped envelope, and I shall send you the recipe for an excellent cleansing cream and also the recipe for superfluous hair.

MRS. A. D.—Buttermilk. takes off freckles that are not too deeply burned in. It is not pleasant to use, but it is excellent for the complexion if used frequently. Fill a basin with buttermilk, then wash the face as in water, using the hands instead of a wash cloth. Allow the buttermilk to dry on, removing in the morning with warm water and soap. If the freckles are stubborn and will not come off with the buttermilk, write me again, sending a self-addressed stamped envelope, and I shall send you an excellent remedy which is stronger. I shall also send you the simple remedy for developing the bust and a bleach for moth patches.

MISS W.—Have you ever moved your scalp with your fingers and found that it was loosely attached to the underlying bones? If it is not it should be, and I advise you to begin massaging your scalp. Scalp massage is the secret of keeping the scalp and hair healthy. It is easily done and is no great tax on time or patience. When the scalp is healthy, the hair grows more easily the hair will lose its brilliancy and fall. Massage keeps the scalp perfectly loose and flexible upon its supporting framework, the skull, and promotes circulation to the roots so that the hair follicles will be properly nourished. If you will send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope I shall be glad to send you an excellent hair tonic and complete instructions for scalp massage.

HAZER'S SELF SACRIFICE TO BRING HIM HELP

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 4.—The hazing of two plebes on October 22 by several upper class men in the presence of two girls in order to show the obedience of the fourth class men to seniors has brought forth a case of self-sacrifice. Midshipman Joseph C. Arnold of Pennsylvania, a member of the third class, with other midshipmen in danger of punishment, has confessed his participation and received 100 demerits.

It takes but 201 to cause dismissal in a four months' term, and Midshipman

Arnold already had some to his credit before receiving the last number. In addition to the demerits, Midshipman Arnold will be deprived of all his privileges and will be kept within the bounds of the Naval Academy for one year.

The second class is much moved by Arnold's conduct and all will endeavor to help him out.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS VISIT THE INFIRMARY

CONSTRUCTION TO BEGIN AT ONCE

District Attorney, With Other Officials, Plans Temporary Building.

Today's Trip to Be Reported On at Meeting of the County Fathers.

With a view of determining upon some plan for the immediate construction of a building at the county infirmary to relieve present congested conditions and at the same time be in keeping with a general architectural scheme for a new infirmary in the future, the Board of Supervisors, accompanied by District Attorney W. H. Donahue, F. W. Searby, foreman of the Grand Jury, and a committee of seven from the Alameda County Taxpayers Association, inspected the new San Francisco almshouse this afternoon.

Next Monday at the regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors the matter will be reported upon and action will be taken at once to commence construction. District Attorney Donahue has stated that there is immediately available for the purpose, $40,000 in the hospital fund and as soon as the architectural plans can be agreed upon, the contract will be let for the new building.

READY BY SPRING.
While it is not anticipated that the building will be ready for the first rains of the winter, it will probably be in condition to receive inmates some time before spring if the present intentions of the officials are carried out.

The Taxpayers' Association committee comprises Adolph Uhl, chairman; R. J. Tyson, Irving H. Kahn, L. C. Morehouse, Dr. S. H. Buteau, Percy J. Walker and Dr. H. G. Thomas.

The party making the inspection met today at 717 Market street and from there they proceeded in automobiles to the almshouse on Potrero avenue. The grounds are east of the avenue, between Twentieth and Twenty-fourth streets. In all there are a number of buildings, all erected in accordance with a general scheme adding to the convenience.

CARRIES $21,000 ON HIS SHOULDER

Beardsley Deposits the Rest of $48,000 With County Clerk.

Acting for the municipality, Assistant City Attorney Beardsley late yesterday deposited with County Clerk Cook an additional $21,000 in gold, subject to the order of the Pacific Coast Lumber and Mill Company, making a total of $48,000 that repays in the safe in the county clerk's office to the credit of the company in connection with the condemnation of certain of its land and leaseholds for waterfront purposes.

WEALTHY MAN IS HOLDUP VICTIM

R. M. Hellman Robbed of $3.50 as He Rushes to Catch Boat.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Held up as he was leaving an office in the Alameda Commercial building, at a late hour last night, R. M. Hellman, a resident of San Rafael, and a wealthy citizen, was robbed of $3.50.

Hellman was about to leave the building, which is located at California and Sansome streets, to catch a boat at the ferry, when he was confronted by an armed robber, who compelled him to hand over $3.50, all the money he had on his person. The police have been given a careful description of the thug.

ROOM IS ROBBED.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—The apartments of Mrs. Emma Baker, 749 Taylor street, were entered by a burglar last night and $50 stolen. The thief ransacked the premises.

MISS MARY HOGAN BECOMES BRIDE OF JAMES R. NEYLAN

MRS. JAMES ROBERT NEYLAN, who, before her marriage this afternoon, was Miss Mary Hogan.

At a very quiet ceremony James Robert Neylan and Miss Mary Hogan were married at St. Mary's Church by the Rev. Edward P. Dempsey at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. L. Behr, and the bride was given away by her uncle, Thomas Hogan.

A pleasing feature of the ceremony was the attendance of two little children, aged 8 and 5 years, Edith Behr and Master Charles Hogan, each attired in white.

SIXTEEN SUBJECTS TO BE DISCUSSED BY LEGISLATURE

Various Committees Appointed by Governor Johnson Begin Their Work This Morning

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 4.—Sixteen or more general subjects of legislation will be considered at the special session of the legislature to be called for December 6, according to announcement made by Governor Johnson after he had been in closed conference with fifty members of the legislature yesterday. These subjects include a presidential primary law, a constitutional amendment to be voted upon at the next general state election providing for free text books, reapportionment of legislative districts, an appropriation to relieve the congested condition at the Southern California Hospital at Los Angeles, and laws having to do with weights and measures, woman suffrage, the initiative, referendum and recall, a divided session of the legislature, the railway commission, revenue and taxation, sailors and soldiers exemption from taxation, the state printing office investigation, irrigation bonds, primary laws, school lands adjustment, industrial accident laws, building and loan laws, and the summoning for contempt of those witnesses who refused to testify before the special Senate committee at the investigation of the affairs of State Printer Shannon.

OVERSTEPS LIMIT.
Originally Governor Johnson planned to limit the special session to three subjects, reapportionment, the state printing office investigation and legislation making effective the constitutional amendments adopted at the special election October 10.

However, when it became generally known that a special session would be held, he received requests to include not less than fifty matters in his call. He found it impossible to do so, for the law distinctly provides that only matters of urgency shall be considered at a special session. Another meeting will be held today, when it is expected that the preliminary work would be furnished. The governor expects to have the call ready about the middle of next week.

In addition to outlining the work to be considered, the governor appointed committees to attend to the drafting of the necessary bills so that when the session is called everything will be in readiness. In spite of the many objections to be considered, the governor is confident that the session will not last more than three weeks.

SHANNON CENSURED.
One of the most important matters to be taken up will be the investigation of the state printer's office. While the meeting yesterday was held behind closed doors and no definite information was given out, it is understood that State Printer Shannon came in for a great deal of censure, and the general sentiment of the legislature is to censure him. It is believed that the legislature will adjourn itself before the legislature of the charges of misconduct made against him, that he should be summarily removed.

The direct presidential primary seemed to meet with almost unanimous approval. Lieutenant Governor Wallace wants an appropriation for the Southern California Hospital. He pointed out that at present the hospital is crowded far beyond its capacity and that many inmates are compelled to sleep in tents. All present were in favor of taking immediate steps to relieve this condition.

Reapportionment was recognized without question as being one of the important matters to be considered. The same committees appointed at the last session by President Wallace of the senate, and Speaker Hewitt of the assembly were authorized to draft reapportionment bills and have them ready when the legislature is called. It is expected that several bills along these lines will be introduced.

Aside from proposed school lands adjustment laws, industrial accident laws and building and loan laws, the other legislation proposed will have to do chiefly with making the state statutes conform with the constitutional amendments recently adopted.

The various committees of legislators appointed last night by Governor Johnson to draft bills which will be adopted by the legislature this morning. Sessions of the committees were held in the several committee chambers of the capital. It was announced that there was enough work ahead of each committee to keep the law makers busy from now until the extra session opens. The executive conference with Governor Johnson which began yesterday was resumed today, one of the chief topics taken up being the presidential primary.

EXPLAINS HOW SHE SECURED PROPERTY

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—C. A. Reddick, an attorney at law, filed a lengthy affidavit today in the divorce case of Herman E. Rehuss against Elizabeth A. Rehuss. The couple were divorced and the husband obtained, it is alleged, $50,000 of a $10,000 inheritance and the custody of their child. Mrs. Rehuss, who admitted the allegation of her spouse, claims that certain property had been turned over to her on condition of her surrendering her offspring to her husband. Reddick's affidavit is an explanation given by Mrs. Rehuss regarding the settlement at the time of the original action. The whole matter comes up before Judge Graham.

WANTED: 8 BOOSTERS FOR CITY

Each Must Have Sum of $80 or Thereabouts and Make Trip to Phoenix.

Special Train to Carry Californians to Arizona State Legislature.

Oakland boosters are hard at work getting a sufficient number of people from this city and the east bay regions to fill a special car on the special train which will leave San Francisco Wednesday for Phoenix, Ariz., to boost for the Panama-Pacific Exposition before the Arizona state legislature, which is holding its first session. The exposition company people are particularly anxious to have this side of the bay represented on the trip, and local boosters see in the trip an excellent opportunity to advertise Oakland and Alameda county.

It is necessary to have eighteen persons from this city to secure a special car, and the matter of getting these people is being taken up by members of the Chamber of Commerce, of the Progress and Prosperity committee of that body and by J. S. Ross of the Southern Pacific, who is looking after the booking of the car. The officers of the Chamber of Commerce have recommended that as many Oakland people as possible take the trip, which embraces the time from next Wednesday morning to the following Monday. This endorsement has been seconded by the Progress and Prosperity committee of that body, which at its meeting last night appointed a committee, consisting of three members and headed by Edward White, to get names for the passage.

According to the arrangements made by the Southern Pacific people the cars which will compose the train will be the best that can be sent out. They will be furnished with a piano, phonograph, moving picture machine and every convenience to make the trip a pleasurable one, while the general service will be the best. The trip will include a stopover of four hours in Los Angeles and two days in Phoenix, giving time for the visits to the sessions of the legislature and trips about the city. At the same time that the Northern California visitors are in the city, delegations will be present by special trains from Los Angeles and San Diego. The fare for the trip varies from $85 to $90 each, according to sleeper accommodations, and all include meals on the dinners.

GIVE-AND-TAKE GAME IN CONGO
France Takes Slice, Germany Takes Slice and Natives Take Nothing.

PARIS, Nov. 4.—The contents of the Franco-German accord show that Germany recognizes the right of France to establish protectorate in Morocco, while both sides in northern French Congo, touching the German Kameruns.

The territory ceded is inhabited by about 1,000,000 negroes and has a commerce valued at $2,400,000 annually. The bay and expanse of land starts at Monda and extends to Kanga river, thence to Kandeiko and thence through the Congo, finally attaining Lake Tchad by way of the Ubanga and Leogone rivers. France and Germany agree to submit to the Hague tribunal all difficulties arising from the operation of the accord.

In reference to Morocco, France agrees to safeguard the economic equality and commercial liberty for which provision is made in existing treaties.

PRESS IS PLEASED.
PARIS, Nov. 4.—The whole French press is pleased over the conclusion of the Franco-German accord and, while exploring the loss of so much of the French Congo, hails with satisfaction the creation of a great French empire in North Africa, consisting of Tunisia, Algeria and Morocco.

BERLIN, Nov. 4.—The morning newspapers comment on the government's statement concerning the agreement reached between Germany and France over Morocco, mostly in unfavorable terms. The Post regards the agreement as a "cup of care, sorrow and shame for the German people," and adds:

"Germany, without drawing a sword, allows France to occupy the last bit of earth not belonging to a great colonial power."

CARL S. PLAUT RETURNS FROM CONGRESS IN EAST

BRINGS REPORTS OF PROSPERITY

Well Known Brewer Enjoyed His Trip, But Is Glad to Be Home Again.

Carl S. Plaut, president of the Oakland Brewing and Malting Company, has just returned from a trip to the eastern states. His report on conditions prosperous and says that he is glad to get back to Oakland where climatic conditions are much better than he found them in many eastern cities. Mr. Plaut went east as the representative of the California State Brewers, to attend the international congress of brewers which recently held a session in Chicago.

"It was a wonderful session that we held in Chicago," said Mr. Plaut today. "Nearly every nation on the face of the globe was represented by delegates. Even little Switzerland sent several delegates to the congress. Japan was also well represented. There was a magnificent display of machinery in the Coliseum in Chicago representing an outlay of something like $2,000,000. The California Development Board was also represented at the congress and I had occasion to do some work for that organization."

"I am happy to say that I secured the International Congress for San Francisco for 1916. This will be a splendid thing for our neighboring city, for the reason that it will bring delegates from almost every nation in the world to San Francisco. I found conditions in the east prosperous, and the people seemed happy. However, I am exceedingly glad to get back to California and particularly to Oakland. I consider Oakland one of the best cities in the United States. We are growing in a wonderful way, and we who live here do not seem to appreciate the many great improvements that are going along right under our eyes. We are blessed with prosperity, good climate, good people, and in fact we have everything to make us happy and contented and prosperous."

SENTENCED TO WALK FLOOR WITH BABY

"Two Hours Every Night Until December 20," Is Judge's Order.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Sentenced to walk the floor for two hours each night with a baby in his arms, was the fate of Patrick Knight, arraigned in the court of domestic relations yesterday on complaint of his wife, who charged non-support.

When Judge Sabath saw Mrs. Knight with the baby in her arms, he ordered the husband to take the child. Knight then said he would take the baby with him, and the judge, who had been told that the husband was a drunkard, smiled. The wife turned to look and smiled too.

"That's better," said the judge to Knight. "If you do not do this, you will have to go to jail. I sentence you to go home with your wife and walk the floor with the baby for two hours every night from now until December 20. Besides that, you will turn your wages over to your wife every pay day."

"On December 20 you will come here and you and I will discuss the kind of Christmas presents you are to buy for your wife and baby."

ATHLETES TO SHOW PROWESS

St. Mary's Students to Appear in Entertainment to Be Given Tonight.

The regular bi-monthly Saturday evening entertainment at St. Mary's College, under the direction of Otto Rittler, the college athletic coach, will be given tonight. A number of vaudeville stunts will be given under the leadership of Leo McClatchy. After the indoor basketball game, the college quartet, which is composed of Thomas Horan, Raymond Miller, Elmo Leonhardt and Thomas Burns, will render a number of vocal selections. A Cecil and L. West will be heard in several instrumental duets, and the concluding number will be an exhibition wand drill by the fourth academy preparatory classes, to be followed by rope climbing by Ed Walsh, who will defend his class against Bertrand Wright and James Tout.

16 AUTOS TO RACE ACROSS DESERT

Racers Sweep Through San Diego, Mexicali and On to Yuma.

Annual Contest Between Los Angeles and Phoenix to Start Tonight.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 4.—Down through Santa Ana and past the old mission, San Juan Capistrano, sixteen automobile racers will dash through the darkness tonight toward San Diego in the annual trans-desert race to Phoenix. The first car, a Maxwell, driven by Clarence Smith, will be sent away from Los Angeles at 10:45 o'clock tonight, and at five-minute intervals thereafter fifteen other cars will trail him in slow procession past suspicious motorcycle police until the city limits of Los Angeles are reached. Then it will be a race to San Diego, which will be the first control on the long route of the 845-mile race.

ROAD RUNS FAR SOUTH.
The route this year stretches far south of the desert road followed in all former races to Phoenix. Instead of going by way of San Bernardino, Mecca and on across the Colorado river to Ehrenburg, the racers will dash down the coast to San Diego; thence across the desert to Mexicali, Lower California, and on to Yuma. From Yuma the route will follow the Gila river to Palomas, where the final leg to Phoenix will be started.

SPEEDY DRIVERS.
The following are the entries, which will start tonight after the Maxwell in the order named:

POISON CASE BAFFLES THE POLICE

The Suspected Woman Urged Haste in Disposing of Dead Man's Body.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—The police today admitted they had practically reached the end of their rope in their investigation into the death of Patrolman Arthur Bissonette and the deaths of eight others, all of whom had been close associates of Mrs. Louise Vermilya. Although Coroner Hoffman had satisfied himself that Bissonette died by arsenic poisoning, and a warrant charging murder has been issued for the woman, the evidence against her thus far is purely circumstantial.

The coroner, the state's attorney and the police department all have had detectives looking up Mrs. Vermilya's career ever since it was suspected that the patrolman's death was not natural. Arthur Bissonette, Sr., father of the dead policeman, today described Mrs. Vermilya's hurry to obtain his son's body for burial after his death.

"An undertaker, C. C. Buysen, was making ready to move the body five minutes after death," he said. "I protested at the hurry and she insisted that it would be better to move the body at once. I finally forbade them to touch it."

The contents of nine bottles of medicine taken from Mrs. Vermilya's home by the coroner are being analyzed.

The police decided not to arrest Mrs. Vermilya because of her illness, but will keep a police guard at her home until she is strong enough to be locked up.

COUNTY SUNDAY-SCHOOL WORKERS END SESSIONS
BERKELEY, Nov. 4.—The final day session of the annual convention of the Alameda County Sunday School Association in the First Presbyterian church was devoted principally to the election of officers for the ensuing year. The convention ended last evening with a discussion of soul-winning in the Sunday school. The speakers were Rev. G. W. Wilde, Rev. Ernest F. Hall and Miss Leda Gregory. President Morton of the State Sunday School Association presided.

The officers elected are as follows: H. F. Edson of Oakland, president; William M. Murray of Alameda, vice-president; Miss Margaret Cluff of Elmhurst, corresponding secretary; Alexander Grinton of Alameda, recording secretary; J. U. Brandt of Oakland, treasurer. The heads of the various departments selected for the coming year were: Home, J. E. Trachler of Oakland; teachers' training, Rev. H. J. Winsor of Oakland; elementary, Mrs. M. Lake of Oakland; organized classes, W. H. Brown of Fruitvale; temperance, Mrs. C. W. Williams of Hayward.

FOOTPAD REFUSES TO TAKE MAN'S LAST COIN
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—A footpad, who operated on Gough street last night, declined to take the last quarter of his intended victim. Isaac Kovish was walking along Gough street near Fern avenue when a man carrying a pistol compelled him to throw up his hands. On searching him and finding only 25 cents the robber returned the coin, saying, "I won't take your last quarter," and turning, walked rapidly off.

FAMOUS NOVELIST IS SPEAKER AT COLLEGE
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Nov. 4.—Dr. Rudolf Herzog, the German novelist, lectured in California Hall last evening to a large audience on the relation of art to life. He spoke in German. Dr. Herzog is lecturing at various universities of this country under the auspices of the Germanistic Society. His home is in Berlin.

ADVISES AGAINST IMMEDIATE ACTION

Alameda Agitation for 2 1/2-Cent Fare Given Temporary Setback.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 4.—The council committee, through adopting the utilities committee report last night, temporarily ended the agitation for a 2 1/2 cent fare between all stations on the Southern Pacific Alameda electric service. The utilities committee submitted the following report and recommendation:

"To the Honorable the Mayor and Council of the City of Alameda, Gentlemen:—The public utilities committee finds itself in the following position: At the present time and until the special session of the legislature, which will be called next month, we have jurisdiction enabling the council of this city to fix fares within the city limits. At the last state election an amendment to the constitution was voted on and carried giving all powers to fix rates for transportation to the State railroad commission. Enabling laws will undoubtedly be passed at the coming special session of the legislature. It is the opinion of the committee that such laws will be passed in such railroad commission.

"Any action that the council of this city may take in the meantime would be superfluous and of no avail. It is self-evident that not enough time could elapse whereby any action of the council could be accomplished by any action of the city council.

"As to the foregoing we have been fully advised by the city attorney.

"Your truly,
"W. H. HAMMOND JR.,
"Public Utilities Committee."

Appended to the report was the following letter, written to the mayor by Assistant General Manager W. R. Scott, of the Southern Pacific:

"Mr. W. H. Nov. Mayor, Alameda:—Acknowledging receipt of your letter of October 30 with further reference to previous correspondence and meetings regarding reduction of rates in Alameda to 2 1/2 cents between all stations throughout the city, as explained to the honorable council at our meeting at Alameda, it would be impossible for the railroad company to furnish the people of Alameda the service that they desire and which we have hoped to furnish them, at the above rates.

"The matter of reduced fares for street car transportation has been tried out in eastern cities and without success. We have spent large sums of money in perfecting and improving the lines and equipment in Alameda, such expense being the greatest expense obtained with respect to street car lines.

"I understand that it is not the purpose of the council to interfere with rates now charged by the street car company in Alameda; and in addition to the statement above made, the proposed reduction would result in reducing the revenue below the expenses, the fact that parallel lines were allowed to charge five cents for similar service would constitute in my opinion a clear case of discrimination against this company. I feel sure that when the honorable members of the council of Alameda and yourself review the situation that you will agree with me.

"Yours truly,
"W. R. SCOTT."

MIDWINTER LEAGUE TO START GAMES SUNDAY

ALAMEDA, Nov. 4.—The Kregg & Haltons, the fastest lightweight nine Alameda has ever produced, will play their opening game in the new Midwinter League at Alameda Recreation park tomorrow afternoon at 2:30, crossing bats with the Calientes of San Francisco. Two games a month will be played in this city. The four teams comprising the league are the Kregg & Haltons, the Calientes, and the Goodyear Rubber Co. of San Francisco and the Independents of Berkeley.

DIRECT ELECTION OPPOSED BY GOVERNOR

OLIMPIA, Wash., Nov. 4.—Governor Marion E. Ray said today that he was opposed to calling of a special session to pass a law providing for the direct election of delegates to national conventions. Petitions have been circulated throughout the State, at the instance of progressive Republican leaders, asking that a special session be called. The progressive Republicans nominated Polindexter for United States Senator at the September, 1910, primary by 42,000 plurality.

COUNCIL LOATH TO ARM BELLIGERENTS

Refuse to Grant Permit Carrying Pistols by Men Who Were Attacked.

BERKELEY, Nov. 4.—G. P. Congor of 1845 Milvia street and John Hitchings of 1843 Berryman street reported to the city council last evening that they had been attacked and stoned by a party of men at Henry and Rose streets, North Berkeley, as they returned yesterday afternoon from their work in the Southern Pacific shops in Oakland, and the shopmen made application for permission to carry revolvers for their protection. They were accompanied to the council chambers by their wives. Their application was filed without action.

Mayor Wilson and Councilman Wilson opposed the filing of the request, urging that the council go on record one way or the other. Both declared that, personally, they were opposed to granting the permit, as the council would be an accessory in the event of a crime being committed.

In reply to a question from Mayor Wilson, Congor admitted that he went on strike at the Oakland shops, but returned to work after a few days.

"I am not going to be frightened out by these coyotes," he said.

"I shall return to work, but need protection in going back and forth. If I had carried a gun I would have sent two or three of those fellows to the morgue."

City Attorney Redmond P. Staats advised the council that it would be a mistake to grant a revolver permit to the two applicants, as they appeared exceedingly hostile and might commit violence. If not murder, and the council would be held partly responsible.

When asked by City Attorney Staats if she wished her husband to obtain a revolver and possibly make use of it upon one or more of his assailants, she replied:

"I would rather he would kill somebody than be killed himself. I would have shot some of those men myself yesterday if I had been given the opportunity."

A warrant sworn to by Congor charging the two men with assault with a dangerous weapon, was issued by Justice of the Peace Robert Edgar at noon today.

ALAMEDA PERSONALS

ALAMEDA, Nov. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fassett of Los Gatos are spending a few days in Alameda as the guests of their relatives. Mrs. Fassett was Miss Em Lou Frisbie, a popular Alameda society maid, before her marriage to Mr. Fassett, who is also a former Alameda, and an Alameda high school graduate.

Mrs. E. K. Taylor entertained the Thursday Evening Card Club last night at her apartments in the Lafayette on Lafayette street. Mrs. Reuben Mastick will be the hostess for the next meeting and will entertain at her home in Hayward.

Mrs. Maurice Gouchot entertained with an evening of music at her home on Santa Clara avenue last night. Miss Laureine Rue, a gifted soprano singer and pianist, assisted Mrs. Gouchot.

The engagement is announced of Stanley Gawn of this city and Miss Marion Vernon, who has been making her home at the Reacock residence in this city. The young woman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Vernon of Portland, her father being connected with the Portland office of the Santa Fe. Gawn is connected with a big motor car company in San Francisco.

Mrs. Ade Erickson, writer and critic, who has had a successful newspaper and magazine career, is to be the guest of her Alameda kinswoman, Mrs. Shelby Brooks. Mrs. Brooks recently returned from a stay abroad of several years. She is now living in San Francisco and also in Washington.

TALE OF CAT AND TWO BULLDOGS IN CITY OF ALAMEDA

I. N. CHAPMAN.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 4.—One of the sunken Spanish ships which the Oregon hammered with her great guns during the fight in Santiago bay was the battleship Christobal Colon. On board the Christobal Colon was a cat, a patriotic tabby, which the Castilians coaxed from her Andalusian haunts for a career as a ship's mascot.

When the Oregon boarded the battered hulk of the Christobal Colon the cat was meowing around trying to find out what all the noise and excitement meant. The American tars carried the cat back to the Oregon. The cat is a handsome female and the Oregon's crew presented it to "Fighting Bob" Evans. For several years the cat lived and thrived on board Evans' ship, the Iowa, and accompanied him during his tour of duty in the Pacific.

Chapman, who is a city engineer, was in the city when the cat was brought to Alameda. He is a cat lover and the cat is now living with him.

Two Boston bulldogs spotted Chapman's aristocratic cat and pounced on it as Captain Clark made the Oregon pounce on the Christobal Colon. One bulldog grabbed the cat by the tail and the other by the head and they hung on and pulled. The cat stretched and stretched like a dachshund, but at last it could stretch no further and broke in two, or something else happened. At any rate it died of its bulldog injuries.

Chapman found out that a cat is not property and that the law doesn't give him much of an opening. Therefore he is polishing up the old Springfield he carried in the Modoc war, and there are two bulldogs in Alameda which are going to be converted into well-paying lead mines if they are caught monkeying around the Chapman premises on Pacific avenue.

Following the feline's tragic death yesterday afternoon the city engineer gave the cat a military funeral today, lowering a flag and firing a salute from his "Indian gun," as the "cat" was placed under ground.

TREBLE CLEF SOCIETY GIVES GOOD PERFORMANCE

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Nov. 4.—Jorda Park theater held a large audience last night which witnessed the Treble Clef production of "When Johnny Comes Marching Home." Students who could act as well as sing distinguished themselves as members of the cast, and the opera was well presented throughout.

Henry A. Stern as Colonel John Graham was the best of the male singers, and Miss Phyllis Maguire, Miss Alice Comb and Miss Grace Ewing carried off the honors in the feminine roles. Miss Ewing, in a soubrette role, scored one of the hits of the show. Ralph B. High and Theodore Haley accounted for the comedy parts.

Miss Ramona Grannice of Sonoma is the guest of Alameda friends. She is one of the foremost musicians in the Sonoma county town.

PSYCHIC DUALISM LEADS BRUMBAUGH TO TAKE TO ROAD

W. H. BRUMBAUGH.

Relapse into a second personality is believed to be responsible for the strange disappearance of W. H. Brumbaugh, an insurance man who has been missing from his home, 5808 Park street, since October 11. Physicians who have attended the man in the past declare that he is possessed of the strange psychic dualism of personality which results in his occasionally losing his identity as W. H. Brumbaugh and becoming another individual.

According to Mrs. Brumbaugh, her husband has disappeared twice before. He is addicted to lapses of memory, and when in this condition even forgets his name and wanders about sometimes for months at a time until his identity returns to him. She fears that he is in a demerited state now, and because of the limited amount of money he had with him thinks that he is not able to take care of himself.

Brumbaugh was in the employ of the American Casualty Company and the American Life Insurance Company of New York. He is well known in Seattle and Tacoma, where he lived before coming to Berkeley.

He is 53 years old, weighs 230 pounds, is five feet seven inches tall, and when last seen wore a tan tweed suit, a soft tan hat and wore a heavy gold watch chain and fob. He left home ostensibly to take a walk and had $50 in his possession.

BOOSTER CLUB TO ADMIT WOMEN

The Latham Terrace Progressives Grant Petition of Fair Citizens.

UPPER FRUITVALE, Nov. 4.—By a unanimous vote put to the entire membership of the Latham Terrace Improvement Club last night it was decided to amend the constitution to permit of women becoming members. The gathering, held in the Manzanita assembly hall, was called by the president, E. W. Hyden, as a result of the demand of a number of prominent women who expressed a wish to become boosters with the men of this section.

RANGERS AND ALAMEDAS PLAY GAME TOMORROW

ALAMEDA, Nov. 4.—Tomorrow afternoon at the Dow grounds the Rangers will hook up with the Alamedas in the Soccer league series. The Alameda team was defeated at the last encounter with the Rangers. The lineup of the Alameda team follows: Cameron, Burns, Walde, Hansen, Everingham, Hansen, Jarman, Walde, Orton, Appleby and Wheeler. The game will commence at 2:30 o'clock sharp.

FATHER WOODMAN AT NEWMAN HALL

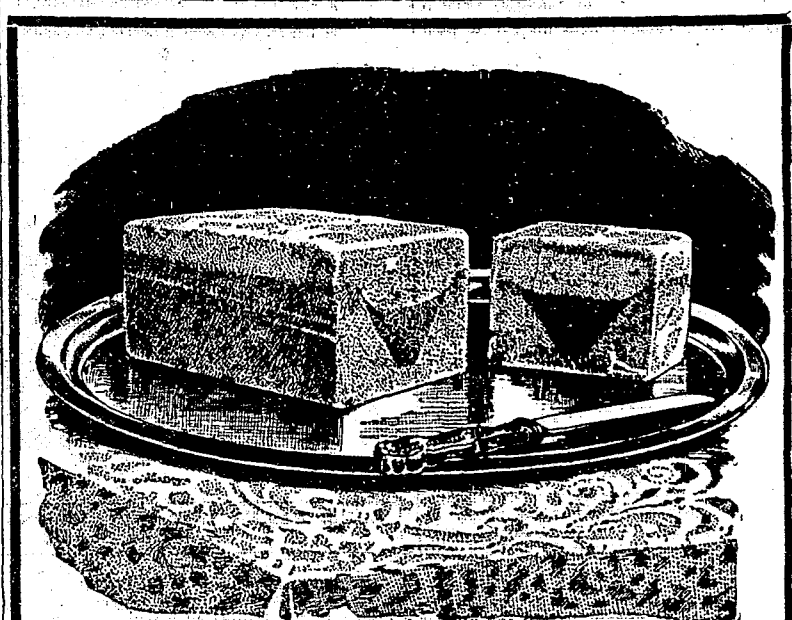

Noted Paulist Priest to Deliver Sermon at Late Mass Tomorrow.

BERKELEY, Nov. 4.—Rev. Clarence E. Woodman, the well known Paulist priest and lecturer, will deliver the sermon at the late mass at 10:30 in Newman Hall, 2630 Ridge road, tomorrow. Father Woodman will speak on "The Example of the Saints." Rev. Thomas Lantry O'Neill, C. S. P., chaplain of the Newman Club, will be the celebrant of the mass.

Gounod's second solemn mass and the offertory, "Come Unto Me" (Fleming), will be rendered by the Newman Club Sunday of the month, the members of the Newman club will receive holy communion at the early mass at 7:30.

The musical program for the benediction service at 5:15 will be as follows: Duet for soprano and contralto, "Vesper Hour" (Spelley), Miss Katherine Sullivan and Miss George Cope; "O Salutaris" (Albrecht), Newman Club Male quartet; "Tantum Ergo" (Gregorian), Newman Club Male quartet; soprano solo, "Jesu, Jesu, Misereere" (Neville), Miss Katherine Sullivan.

The public is invited to all religious services in Newman Hall.

An old time favorite for tomorrow's dessert

Here is one of the best desserts we ever made. It is a perfect combination:

Tutti Frutti Ice Cream
Lemon Water Ice
Vanilla Ice Cream

In offering it for tomorrow's special we do so with pardonable pride and earnestly advise all of our friends and patrons to try it.

These Sunday specials have now become so popular that the announcement of an especially fine brick always brings an overwhelming demand therefore. If you want yours delivered be sure to order early—tonight if possible.

If you expect to call for your brick there will be no need of hurry, for we will have plenty to go around.

50c for a quart brick if you call at the store
25c for a pint brick if you call at the store
80c for a quart brick if we deliver it to you

Rival Universities Will Line Up in Final Practice Games at Rugby This Afternoon

OLYMPICSTO TACKLE U. OF C. STANFORD, THE CANADIANS

Rival Universities Will Be Put to Test in Games Against Well Trained Rugby Teams Today

Participants of the two big football teams from the Berkeley and Stanford Universities will have their last opportunity today of seeing their favorites in action. On California Field, commencing at 2:30 the varsity squad from California University will line up against the strong Olympic Club of San Francisco, while down at Stanford the Cardinal squad will have a kicking bee with the British Columbia team for the second time.

As to the Berkeley-Olympic game this much can be said: It will be the strongest team the Blue and Gold can send on the gridiron.

One change has been made in the varsity lineup that has been expected for some time past. Peart has been moved from the three-quarter line to the full-back position. This will let Evans in on the wing three-quarter position and might be the possible solution for strengthening the fullback position.

Fullback on the California team has not been as strong this season as for some seasons past, though the playing of Peart should bolster up the defense in this important place. The balance of the team is about the same as has been playing in the later games, except that McMahon will take Morris' place as scrum halfback.

The Olympic club will have a strong team, most of the old reliables having decided to take their places. Decius will be back in the game again, which should materially strengthen the defense. The forwards are a strong lot and should be able to give the varsity a good game for the closing preliminary game of the season.

STANFORD-BRITISH COLUMBIA. Down at Stanford the Cardinal University will meet the All British Columbia team for the second time. The northerners have been able to give both varsity squads a hard fight in the games so far played, although the latter always proved too strong for the lighter northern players toward the end of the game.

The lineup announced by Coach Presley last night is not the best team that the Cardinal has put in the field. A number of stars being conspicuous by their absence. Captain Erb, Harrigan, Kern, Doherty, and Frank are all on the injured list and will not take part. Kern and Harrigan are the latest to be placed hors de combat, both players having sustained serious injuries.

The forwards, however, are a representative lot and should make a good showing against the northerners.

The Stanford contingent played more like the Stanford of old in the last stages of the game against the British Columbia team Wednesday, and if the team is able to hit up the same game today, it will be proof positive that the Cardinal men have at last struck proper form. If able to put up the same game against the British Columbia team that they played in the last few minutes last Wednesday and if they show well today in the back field, then the Cardinal stock is bound to rise.

The games today will give the coaches a last opportunity to size up the ability of their players and as a number of the positions are still doubtful, the playing of certain men will make or break their chances of going into the big struggle.

HOW THE TEAMS WILL LINEUP. The teams for the big varsity games are as follows:

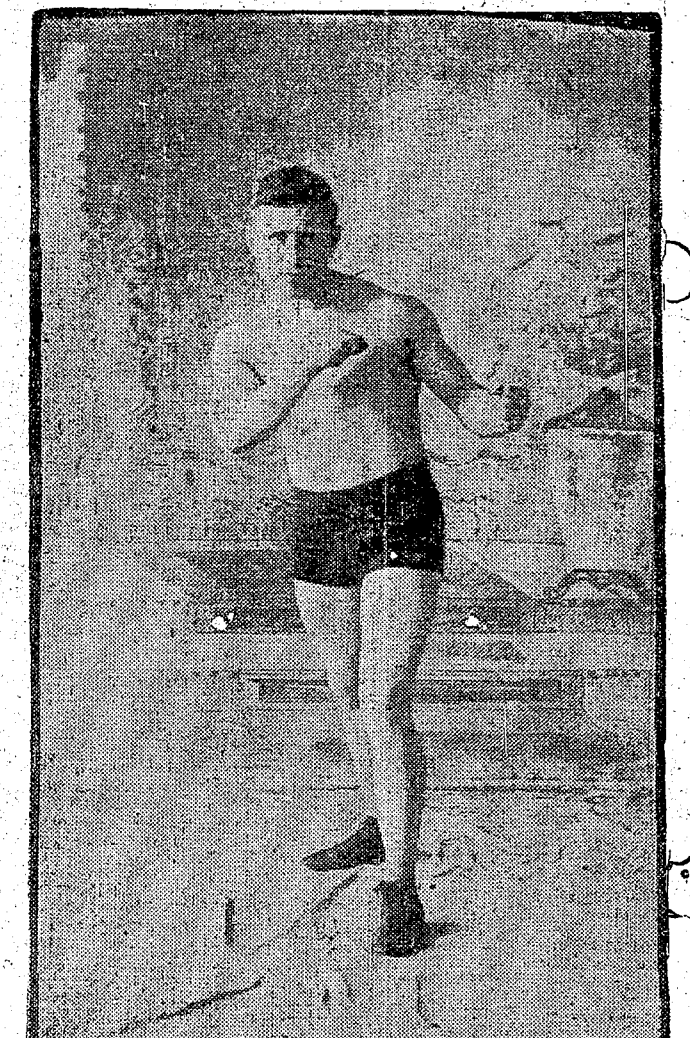

California: Peart, fullback; Watts, Allen, Evans, three-quarters; Elliott, Stroud, five-eighths; McMahon, halfback; P. Phleger, C. Phleger, Carpenter, Hardy, Hansen, Swartz, Kline, forwards. Olympic—Decius, fullback; Sharpe, Butler, Fletcher, three-quarters; McKenzie, Peters, Lunt, five-eighths; Phillips, halfback; Marisch, McGregor, Glascock, Skov, Fitting, Freeman, Brown, Trowbridge, Single, Sundell, forwards.

The Stanford vs. British Columbia teams will lineup as follows: Stanford—Ristling, fullback; Templeton, Stanborn, Geisler, three-quarters; Worswick, Noble, five-eighths; one-halfback; case, scrum halfback; Woodcock, Schupp, Gard, Watkins, Partridge, Haley, A. Stanborn, Corbett, forwards.

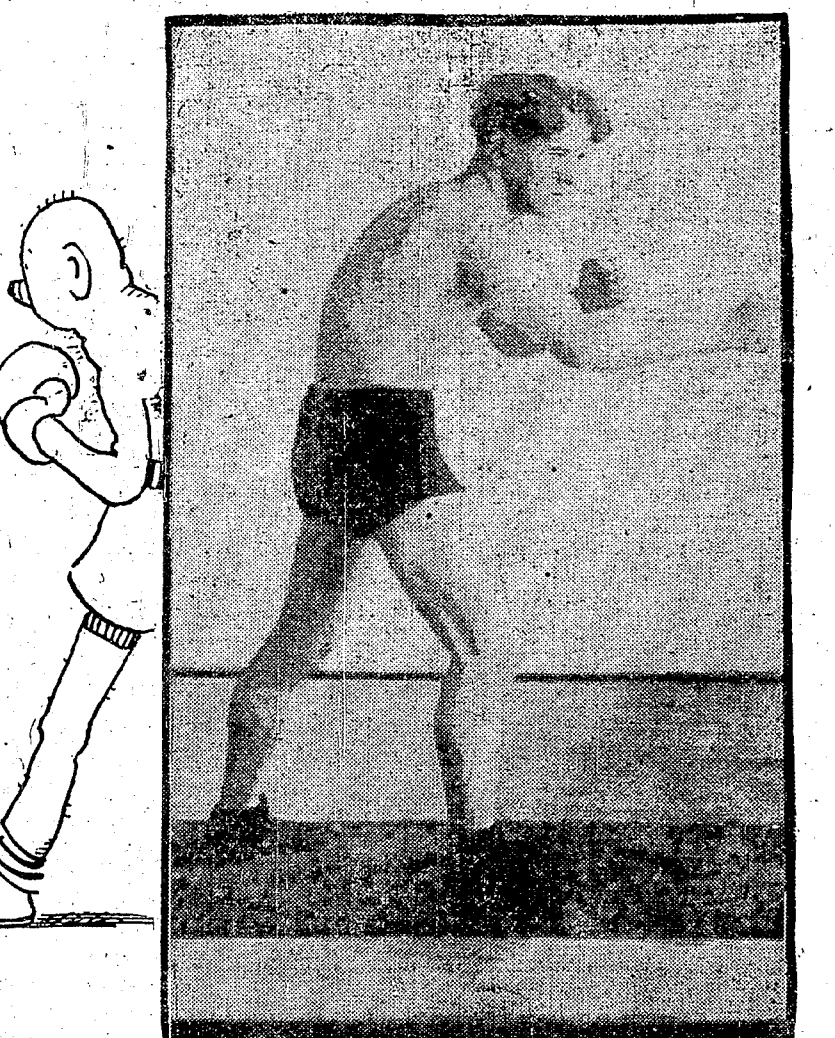

British Columbia—Jewett, fullback; McGulgan, Elliott, Watkins, Vincent, three-quarters; Newcombe, five-eighths; Newcombe, outside halfback; Luke, scrum halfback; Thomas, Miller, Luke, scrum halfback; Fox, Sweeney, Smith, McLeann, forwards.

Referee—W. J. Mackay.

Four scrappers in the limelight at the present time. "One Round" Hogan of California may box Tommy Murphy before the Shasta Club this month for Jim Coffroth, Freddie Welsh, British champion, is slated to meet Ad. Wolgast, world's champion, at Los Angeles on Thanksgiving day.

TOMMY MURPHY

ONE ROUND HOGAN

MURPHY GETS FEVER AND THINKS HE IS WORTH MONEY

Harlem Scrappers Objects to Coffroth's Terms; But Jim Is Hopeful.

Sunshine Jimmy Coffroth has his troubles. Just when he thought that he had "Harlem" Tommy Murphy and "One Round" Hogan signed up for a twenty-round bout in San Francisco the latter part of this month, the Harlem bruiser comes along and wants a wee bit more as an inducement to come west and tangle up with the Californian.

Jim is somewhat peeved but still has hopes of bringing the youngster to terms that will be satisfactory to all parties concerned and this morning said that he figured the match as good as made. Tomorrow or Monday he will get in touch with the managers of both the men. Hogan and Murphy look like a good card and I fancy that they will do well from a box office point of view.

WOLGAST WILL MEET AD. COMERS. Tom Jones, manager of Ad. Wolgast, the premier lightweight who is hastening to Los Angeles to lock horns with the British champion Freddie Welsh, gave out the information at Chicago that after the Thanksgiving go at Lemonville, Ad. would be willing and ready to meet all comers if the inducements were right. Have a guess what Tom means by inducements.

This saying that Ad. would meet all comers means that the Michigan wonder is ready and anxious to tackle Packy Farland in the new arena on the fans can imagine just about how much Ad. would want if he succeeds in whipping Farland's Long protection.

KILBANE WILLING TO MEET ABIE. Johnny Kilbane, the Cleveland scrapper who jumped into prominence in the southland by whipping Joe Rivers, is willing to put up his dukes against the irrepressible money getting Abie Attell. The Cleveland featherweight who is at present at Detroit is willing for McCarey or Coffroth to bid for his services and so is Abie. In fact, Abie gave out a press agent's story that he was offered $5000 to battle in Los Angeles.

Kilbane likes the looks of this $5000 and then he has an itching to take a swing or two at the Hebrew.

COUTURE TO BOX BAUGHMAN. From Petaluma comes word that articles of agreement have been made for a 20 round match between Ray Baughman of Petaluma and Freddie Couture, the bout to take place at Petaluma on Tuesday evening, November 21. Baughman and Couture have met on two previous occasions, each winning a bout. In addition to the main event there will be two four round bouts and a six round affair.

BAUM AND EWING TO LEAVE FOR MEETING MONDAY NIGHT

J. Cal. Ewing, big gun behind the Coast League, came back in a hurry from Henry Berry's night and had much to say about the next meeting of the National Association at San Antonio on the 15th.

President Al. Baum met Ewing for a lengthy conference for the good of the game and the league and this is what Cal. had to say.

"We are not going east to make any demands of the National Commission, or with chips on the shoulders. In other words, we are not looking for a fight, but have some suggestions that we have reason to believe will be received in the proper way."

"I had not intended to make public the proposed changes, but since Henry Berry has mentioned them, I see no reason why they should not be further outlined. The main thing that we are seeking in California is a change of rule 86. We want to be permitted to buy players from minor leagues of lower classification and at the same time leave these players with the club until the end of the season."

"As the rule now stands, when we buy a player in mid-season, or in the fall, we are forced to accept immediate delivery. What happens then? If any major league club takes a fancy to that man, he must be drafted from us for $1000, and yet, perhaps, we have paid more than $1000 for the man. Under the existing rule we can not with any degree of certainty build up our clubs for the following season. If we can put through a change in that rule we will be satisfied."

AMATEUR DRIVERS TO CLOSE RACING SEASON

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—At a meeting of the San Francisco Driving Club held Thursday it was decided to hold the last matinee race meet of the season at the Stadium Sunday. A program of six races was arranged. The club will donate valuable prizes for each event.

A beautiful cup donated by Don Morris will be the trophy of the race for all. The races will start promptly at noon.

VALUABLE STALLION DEAD

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 4.—The valuable pacing stallion, Exmore, 2:10, a son of Expeditious, owned by Henry E. Reah of Pittsburgh, dropped dead here yesterday at the trotting track. Exmore was one of the best offerings on the trotting track.

CARDINAL TEAMS TO PLAY

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 4.—Two teams will play baseball on the new diamond today under the supervision of Captain S. W. Gilliland and J. D. Peters. Practice three times a week has been in order for a month. The number of candidates for the varsity including in fall practice sets a new record at Stanford, over fifty being out.

HERE'S ANOTHER JAM CONCERNING BIG WORLD SERIES

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 4.—A warrant charging grand larceny was sworn out yesterday by William F. Gordon for the arrest of Walter Calvin, alleged to have embezzled $1050 furnished him for the purchase of tickets to the world's series baseball games for speculating purposes.

Calvin is said to have claimed he would obtain 50 tickets to each of the seven games from Harry Davis, captain of the Philadelphia Athletics.

Before the series opened, Gordon sent a certified check on the American National Bank of Richmond for $1050 to the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium this evening in favor of "Captain Harry Davis, Philadelphia Baseball Club." This check was subsequently cashed at the Philadelphia endorsed "Captain Harry Davis, Philadelphia Baseball Club."

There is, of course, no charge against Davis, but the matter will be presented to the National Commission.

DETROIT BACKSTOP IS HANDY WITH MITTS IN BOXING GO

FORT SMITH, Ark., Nov. 4.—After Joe Cox of Springfield, Mo., was fouled in the second round of a ten round bout with Eddie Fields of Joplin, Mo., here last night, Charlie Schmidt, the American league baseball catcher for the Fort Smith team last season, took Cox's place and won a six round decision over Fields.

ABE ATTELL BOXES TEN-ROUND DRAW WITH SMITH

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 4.—Abe Attell, the champion featherweight, fought ten rounds with Herman Smith, the champion of the world, in a draw here last night. Attell landed five blows to the champion's eye, but they had nothing behind them.

GOTCH CERTAINLY DOES PICK OUT EASY ONES

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 4.—Frank Gotch, world's champion middleweight, defeated Jack Leon in two straight falls last night. Gotch won the first fall in 25 minutes and the second in 15 minutes.

ST. MARY'S PLAYS SACRAMENTO

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 4.—The Rugby team of St. Mary's College came here Thanksgiving day for a game with the team of the Sacramento Athletic Club.

NO CHANCE OF WOLVERTON TAKING CHARGE OF N. Y.

Poplar Oakland Manager Likes Town and Fans and Then He Has Good Contract With Ed Walter

The New York Americans are reported as seeking the services of Manager Harry Wolverton of the Oaks as their leader for the season of 1912. Well, the New York Americans won't get Harry Wolverton for the simple reason that President Ed Walter won't let him go, and then again, Harry himself is in no real hurry to pull away from the glorious State of California, and more especially Oakland. Harry likes the fans out this way and the fans like Harry, so that will mean that he won't care to go east right now.

O. C. L. A. PLAYERS TO BEGIN SEMI-FINALS THIS EVENING

The first game of the semi-final basketball series of the Oakland Athletic League will be played at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium this evening in favor of "Captain Harry Davis, Philadelphia Baseball Club." This check was subsequently cashed at the Philadelphia endorsed "Captain Harry Davis, Philadelphia Baseball Club."

There is, of course, no charge against Davis, but the matter will be presented to the National Commission.

STAGG FEARS CHICAGO WILL FALL BEFORE MINNESOTA

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 4.—Coach Stagg of Chicago said yesterday regarding the football game with Minnesota. "The way things look to me Minnesota has the edge on Chicago. The Gophers have more veterans in the lineup and the veterans are sorely needed in a game played before such a crowd as is expected on Northrup Field tomorrow."

JUST SHOW US ABIE, WE'RE FROM MISSOURI

DETROIT, Nov. 4.—Johnny Kilbane, who is matched with Abe Attell to fight for the featherweight title, yesterday said that he is agreeable to having the fight decided in the Vernon arena, January 1, the theatrons. World has been received here that the $5000 offered Attell to fight in Vernon has been accepted by the champion.

RIVAL ELK TEAMS ARE READY FOR BATTLE ON DIAMOND

All is ready for the big baseball game between the Berkeley and Alameda lodges of Elk on the Oakland diamond at Freeman's park. The antlered warriors with their right off the reel things will begin to hum.

The Alameda contingent will be on hand with nearly 500 supporters, and with their mock brass band, and purple goal made members of the respective lodges go for a certainty. If arrangements can be made, the Berkeley lodge will endeavor to have the Fifth Regiment band present to help whoop it up.

Although from a baseball point of view, the contest promises to be exceptionally well played, many of the players having professional experience, the game will not be without its comedy features.

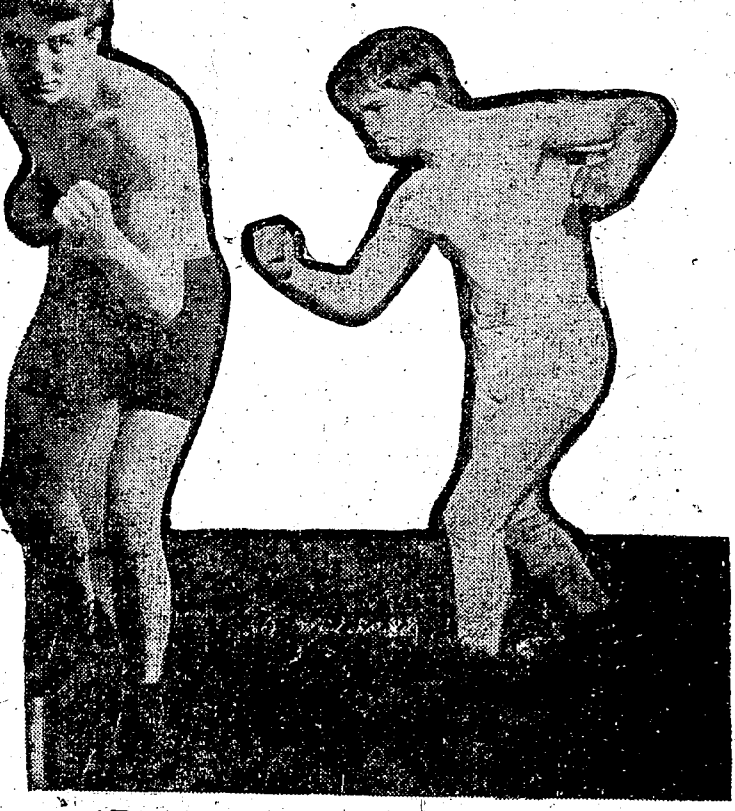

The lineup of the Blamats will probably include: Guarini and Carpenter, forwards; Jones, center; Nodlin and ———. Next Saturday evening the Loyal Sons, finishing second, and Plymouth, finishing fourth in the heavyweight division, will play the second and last game of the semi-finals.

WHEN IT HAPPENS IT'S THEN TIME THAT WE BELIEVE IT

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Nov. 4.—Mordecai Brown, famous pitcher of the Cubs, while visiting in Brazil, Ind., announced to his friends that he had played his last major league baseball. When seen at his home in Rosedale he said the statement would be qualified since he expected ventments he is making in the west would be for him to retire from baseball if he desired.

EVEN THE ENGLISH GO AFTER LITTLE ART FOR SPEEDING

NEWCASTLE, Eng., Nov. 4.—Jack Johnson, pugilist, was fined $100 for over-speeding his automobile through the streets here yesterday. Johnson failed to appear when the case was called and the fine was entered against him.

WELSH WOLGAST

CRACK TEAMS WILL MEET AT YANKEE FOOTBALL

The Century Athletic club team will play the Brooklyn tomorrow afternoon at the Presidio athletic grounds at San Francisco 2:30 for the American football championship of San Francisco. The Century team is composed largely of veteran Yosemite club players and every member of the team has been practicing daily in order to get into the best of shape for their important game with their old-time rivals, who proved the victors in last year's contest by a score of 3 to 0. Pete Smith will referee tomorrow's game.

LADS OF CATHOLIC SCHOOLS PREPARE FOR MEET

Plans are now under way for a track meet to be held by the Oakland members of the Catholic Schools Athletic league during the coming month. The only participants will be the youngsters from the transbay division.

St. Anthony's school, East Oakland; St. Joseph's academy, Berkeley; St. Joseph's institute, West Oakland; St. Francis de Sales school, Sacred Heart school and St. Mary's school will be the ones to form the new division.

JAPANESE PLAY BASEBALL

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 4.—A baseball team composed of Japanese from Oakland won from a team of local Japanese yesterday afternoon at Alameda park by a score of 6 to 1. The pitcher of the local nine was given poor support.

SYNDICATE SIXES

"Syndicate Sixes" Are Readily Convertible Into Cash on Short Notice.

The prudent man of moderate means cannot foresee when he may unexpectedly require his capital for other uses, and therefore wants it so invested that he can obtain it when needed.

To this type of investors we offer "Syndicate Sixes" with a 6-months call endorsement.

The impulsive investor, who is easily persuaded to go into speculative enterprises or who is likely to loan his money to friends, requires the long term certificate which protects him from drawing out his capital, thus keeping his money intact.

The wage earner without a surplus to buy a paid-up certificate requires a monthly saving plan, and to him we offer the installment certificate.

The business man requires that his money be quickly available for monthly bills and to him we offer a 30-day call five per cent certificate.

Thus you see Realty syndicate. Certificates are written to meet the requirements of every type of investor.

Descriptive literature for the asking. Written for any sum from $100 up or on installments from $6.10 per month up.

CROSS, SICK, FEVERISH CHILDREN NEED GENTLE, THOROUGH CASCARETS

Most of the ills of childhood are caused by a sour, disordered stomach, sluggish liver and constipated bowels. They catch cold easily, become cross, listless, irritable, feverish, restless, tongue coated, don't eat or sleep well and need a gentle, thorough, physic—but don't try to force a nauseating dose of oil into the little one's already sick stomach—it is cruel, needless and old-fashioned.

Any child will gladly take Cascarets which act gently—never gripe or produce the slightest uneasiness—though cleanses the little one's system, sweetens the stomach and puts the liver and bowels in a pure, healthy condition.

Full directions for children and grown-ups in each package.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this gentle, thorough laxative which costs only 10 cents per box.

SACRAMENTAN ELECTED HEAD OF BRICKLAYERS

FRESNO, Nov. 4.—At the morning session the State Association of Bricklayers, elected the following officers: J. D. Elms of Union No. 9, Sacramento, president; J. T. Norwood of Union No. 2, Los Angeles, first vice-president; Charles Root, No. 11, San Diego, second vice-president; Thomas Ryan, No. 8, Oakland, secretary-treasurer. Ryan has held this position for several terms and was re-elected without opposition.

For the most the election was barren of the contests. Last night the visitors were guests of the Fresno union at a banquet.

FLASH OF FLAME FROM SKY DESTROYS PLANT

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 4.—That a flaming meteor plunging from the sky caused a fire which completely destroyed the big pumping plant of the Salt Lake Railroad at Lyons, in the desert, almost claiming Telegraph Operator Harry Lane as a victim, is the report made at railroad headquarters in registering the damage done by the unusual incident. Westbound train No. 1 was a mile, and a half away when the engineer saw the big fire ball plunge into the pumping station, followed instantly by a volume of flame leaping upward. Throwing on additional speed he rushed the heavy train to the station. The plant was then a mass of flame. The engineer and crew rushed to the telegraph room on the second floor, where Lane lay unconscious, having received a severe electric shock as the bolt struck the building. The passengers joined in fighting the flames while the trainmen rescued the operator.

GOVERNOR WEST IN PEEVISH MOOD PARDON SOUGHT FOR DR. DUNCANSON

Refuses to Issue Request On Colorado Governor for Extradition.

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 4.—Governor Oswald West yesterday refused to issue a request on the governor of Colorado for the extradition of W. A. Rinker, a deputy sheriff of Denver, who has been indicted in Multnomah county on a charge of kidnapping Leo Martin, who is said to be wanted in Denver to answer to a charge of alleged non-support of his wife and child. At the same time Governor West honored a second requisition, issued by the governor of Colorado for Martin's extradition.

On commenting on the subject in his letter to District Attorney George C. Cameron of Multnomah county, Governor West says that Rinker has for a second time been ordered to come to Oregon to get Martin and that it would be an unnecessary expense to send an officer to Colorado to bring him to this state.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 4.—The refusal of Governor West to issue a request for the extradition of Deputy Sheriff W. A. Rinker of Denver, wanted here to answer to an indictment charging kidnapping, adds another chapter to a quarrel between the governor, Rinker and two Portland detectives on one side and Judge W. N. Gatens of the state circuit court on the other.

Rinker came here a month ago, armed with necessary requisition papers for the removal of Leo Martin to Colorado, but Judge Gatens intervened and set Martin free on habeas corpus proceedings. Martin was rearrested and liberated, and this performance repeated until the man had been under arrest five times, when Rinker, with the assistance of two Portland detectives, smuggled Martin across the Columbia river into Washington. Rinker was well on his way with Martin when at Newport, Wash., his prisoner was taken away from him.

Following this episode, Gatens, according to his own statement, appeared before the grand jury here and secured Rinker's indictment on a charge of kidnapping.

RIVER COMMISSION ASKED FOR STATE

Governor Is Requested to Consider Improvements at Special Session.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 4.—Governor Johnson has been petitioned to include in his extra session call a provision for a special commission to control river improvements, as the result of a meeting of prominent residents of the Sacramento and San Joaquin river districts, held at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

The meeting was attended by Major S. A. Cheney, federal engineer in charge of all river improvement work in California, and followed a meeting held Thursday night when plans were considered for hastening this work outlined in Major Cheney's report to Congress. The meeting yesterday adopted the following memorial to the Governor:

"The approval of the report of the California Debris Commission, dated August 10, 1910.

"The enactment of a law appointing a board or commission to control river improvements, reclamation works and acquire rights of way and property necessary for control of the flood waters of navigable rivers.

"The passage of laws relating to reclamation of swamp lands and reclamation districts.

"To make recommendations and requests to Congress relative to river improvements, the control of flood waters and reclamation of swamp and overflowed land.

"To make appropriation to enable said board or commission to carry each law into effect."

INDICTMENTS RETURNED FOR CENSUS PADDING

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 4.—With the indictments yesterday by the United States Grand Jury of Fred H. Saylor, John F. Connor and one other who has not yet been arrested, the work of the United States census fraud examiners in Portland has been completed. Saylor and O'Connor, who were special agents of the supervisor, S. C. Beach, were arrested yesterday and released on $2000 bonds each. They are charged with inducing enumerators to make and swear to false returns before Supervisor Beach.

Eight indictments in all have been returned against Portland census employees as a result of the alleged padding of the Portland census in April, 1910. One pleaded guilty and was fined $500. The others are awaiting trial.

ALLEGED EGG THIEF CAUGHT AT PETALUMA

PETALUMA, Nov. 4.—Deputy Sheriff Rasmussen, Chief of Police, Ruelser made a clever capture here yesterday of a stranger who is believed to be a wholesale egg thief, and the search continued for his companion, who is believed to be hiding in the city. The prisoner was taken into custody while in the chair at the dental office of Dr. Phillips. Last evening, with his companion, he called at the Tlemann ranch and entered the upstair, taking three cases of eggs, and made good his escape. Yesterday he was about the market disposing of the eggs. While this is the only offense charged against him, the officers believe they may be able to connect him with other San Francisco county cases. He gives his name as L. J. Adams.

C. E. Ramage, After Work of Two Years, Believes He Will Free Friend.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—After working for more than two years and traveling from California to Kentucky, a cause upon which he has set his heart, C. E. Ramage of Pomona, believes that he has about accomplished his mission, that he is about to secure justice and liberty for his friend, Dr. E. E. Duncanson, who is serving a sentence of life imprisonment in San Quentin.

Ramage believes that Duncanson is innocent of the terrible crime of which he was convicted on the unsupported testimony of his 12-year-old step-daughter, Helen Tyler. The child has since repudiated her testimony in the case and has declared that she swore falsely against Doctor Duncanson at the instigation of Mrs. Daisy Duke, a remote connection of her mother.

GOVERNOR REFUSES PARDON.

The appeal for a pardon for the convicted man was taken to Governor Gillett in December of last year, but he declared that he did not have time to consider the case. Then Ramage took the matter to Governor Johnson, who has it under consideration. According to Ramage, Johnson's former executive secretary reviewed the case on the documents exhibited by Ramage and reported favorably for pardon. But there has been delay in the matter. However, Ramage is confident that action will soon be taken. Some friends have advised Duncanson to apply for a parole, but he has refused to consider that, for, while it would restore his liberty to him, to a certain extent it would not remove the stigma of crime from his name.

Dr. Duncanson was convicted in July, 1909, in Los Angeles, county of an offense against the daughter of his dead wife. The child, Helen Tyler, was the only witness heard in the case, and she related her story and convicted Duncanson. He was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Doctor Duncanson, according to Ramage, had more than his share of enemies in San Bernardino and Los Angeles counties.

SCATTER SHARES IN OTHER BANKS

Members of Alleged "Money Trust" Plan Opposition to Investigation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—In well-informed quarters it is stated that the interests connected with the National City Bank are disposing of their holdings of shares in other banks throughout the country. These holdings are believed to aggregate from 50,000 to 60,000 shares, and probably include several foreign banks, as well as a number of domestic institutions. The value of these shares runs into the millions.

It is understood this step is being taken to overcome any further opposition on the part of the Government in connection with the reorganization of the National City Company, a holding of securities corporation recently formed with a capital of $10,000,000, which was derived from a cash dividend declared by the National City Bank.

The legal status of the National City Company has received unofficial approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, to whom the plan was submitted some months ago, but was opposed by Attorney-General Wickersham. As a result of the disagreement the matter was placed in the hands of President Taft, who, it is expected, will shortly announce his decision.

MONEY TRUST.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Attorney-General Wickersham's report of his investigation of the National City Bank case yesterday charges the National City Company with an embryo money trust, controlled by the National City Bank for holding stocks in other financial institutions in contravention of the National bank law.

Secretary Taft does not agree with the Attorney-General. President Taft will take up the case when he returns to Washington.

AMENDMENT IS BLAMED FOR $200,000 TAX LOSS

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 4.—The supervisors of San Bernardino county are considering a proposition of suing the state of California for $200,000, which the county lost by reason of the enactment a year ago of the constitutional amendment which exempted railroads from the payment of county taxes.

"The enactment of the amendment lost vast railroad assessments to San Bernardino county. According to a schedule just issued by State Controller Nye, one of the railroad property in this county is $1,832,258, which would represent $28,000 in taxes. The basis of the suit, should it be instituted, would be, it is said, the following provision of the amendment itself, as voted upon by the people:

"Until the year 1918 the state shall reimburse San Bernardino county for the net loss in county revenue occasioned by the withdrawal of railroad property from county taxation."

It is alleged that the legislature failed to comply with the provision and granted only partial reimbursement to the county.

RAILROADS WOULD KNOW WHAT CONGRESS WANTS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Officials of the Pennsylvania, Philadelphia and Reading, Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, Baltimore and Ohio and Atlantic Coast Line Railroads having employees' relief association liabilities which they claim aggregate $200,000,000 held conferences here late yesterday in an effort to ascertain just what Congress expects of them. They will appear Monday before the congressional employees' liability committee.

HELP ASKED FOR PIONEER.

SANTA ROSA, Nov. 4.—Santa Rosa Press of California has adopted resolutions addressed to Governor Johnson, asking that the state take action, if possible, in providing some assistance for aged Henry Beeson, survivor of the Bear Flag party, who is in destitute circumstances. It is suggested that a small pension could be provided for Beeson.

SIX AMENDMENTS TO LAWS ADOPTED

International Typographical Union Takes Action by a Referendum Vote.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 4.—The six amendments to the by-laws of the International Typographical Union, submitted to the members for a referendum vote, were adopted, according to announcement made by President James M. Lynch of this city. The most important provides for a graduated burial benefit, according to length of membership in the union, instead of flat rate of $75.

WOODROW WILSON SOUNDS WARNING

"We've Got Our Guns and Are Going to Shoot," Message to "Wrong Herd."

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Nov. 4.—There is going to be a re-alignment this year and next year and the year after that," declared Governor Woodrow Wilson in an address here last night. "You cannot do anything with a party made up of men who do not agree with each other. This is the way the Republican party is now. It will bring in a new era in American politics. The new era has come. We have got our guns, and it is the open season. We are going to shoot. Don't get in the wrong herd."

CONVICTED OF SPYING.

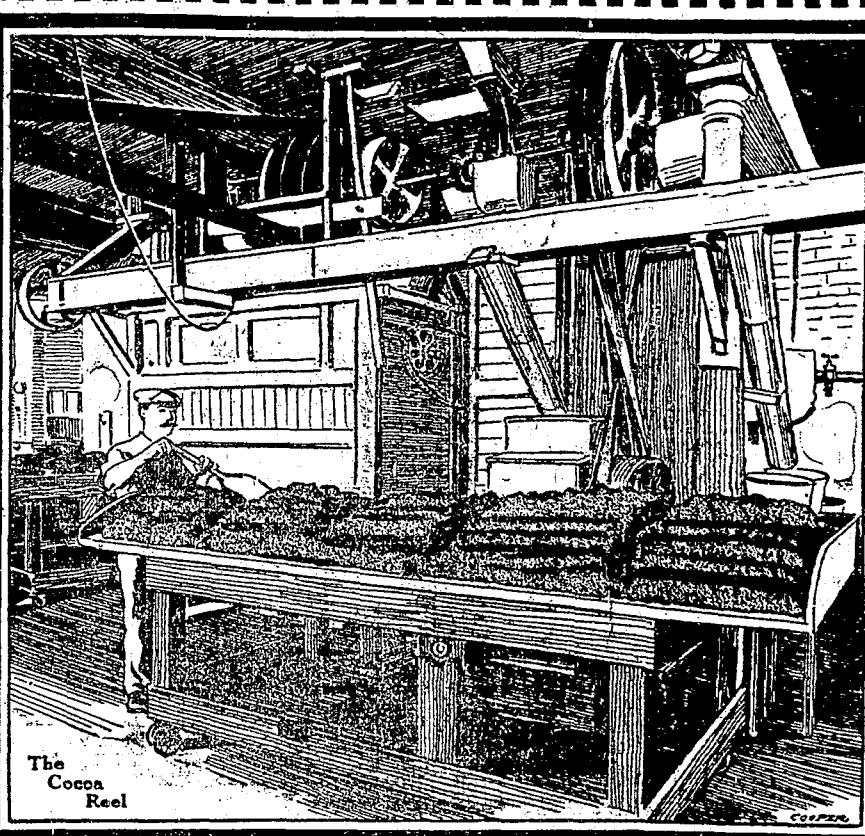

EXETER, Eng., Nov. 4.—Lieutenant Philip M. Schuit of the Thirtieth Hussars, stationed at Frankfort on the Main, was convicted at the Devonshire assizes yesterday on the charge of spying and sentenced to twenty-one months' imprisonment. It was alleged by the prosecution that Schuit was commissioned by the German authorities to obtain information as to how the British government supported France in the dispute over Morocco.

Chocolate Pirns
A pound (one cupful) powdered sugar mixed with one egg white and a pinch of ground cinnamon. Crush one cupful of unpeeled almonds and add to former mixture. Stir this on fire until hot; put two-thirds of a cupful of Ghirardelli's Cocoa to hot mixture, stirring thoroughly. Add small round cakes on well-buttered and floured cake pans; medium oven. Prepared especially for us by the Pastry Chef at the Palace Hotel.

THIS sifting machine gives one of the finishing touches—and an important one—to the manufacturing of

Ghirardelli's Cocoa

The cocoa is delivered to it and is passed through silk bolting cloth which sifts it thoroughly, removing all lumps, making it extremely light and fine.

Purity has distinguished all the Ghirardelli's products for nearly 60 years and is one of the excellencies of Ghirardelli's Cocoa which makes it especially desirable for children and invalids.
